Mrs. M. Brooks, son and two daughters, who at one time were residents of Hermiston, but now living at Walla Walla, were guests at the Shotwell home Sunday.

Miss Mary Hayward, a friend of Miss Emily Shotwell, was a week end visitor at the Shotwell home.

Irwin Shotwell was home from college over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. John Young and family, of Hood River, were Hermiston visitors the latter part of last week.

Those who attend the services at the Baptist church next Sunday will be assured a real treat. Miss Emily Shotwell and Mr. Paul De F. Morti-more are scheduled to sing a duet.

Mac Crowder, brother of Raymond Crowder, arrived in Hermiston last Friday from Wasco, Ore. He will spend the winter here.

Mrs. F. A. Cherk, Mrs. Fred Callahan and Miss Elsie Richards spent the week end in Walla Walla.

Dr. W. F. and G. E. Prime, father and brother of Dr. F. Y. Prime, of this city, were visiting the latter at his home here the first part of the week.

J. L. Johns, Hermiston resident, is registered at the Hot Lake sanatorium. As a patient there he plans to take treatments for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Harder, of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Mac Donald, of Scio, spent Saturday and Sunday in this vicinity. They report hunting excellent here.

Dr. and Mrs. Morse, of Wasco, arrived here on Saturday in readiness for the opening of the pheasant season.

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Warren were in Hermiston Thursday evening. Mr.
Warren is connected with the Boardman Trading Company.

CHILDREN BORN IN BUNCHES

Tuscanly Woman Gave Birth to Eleven Sons in Two Years—Her Total Sixty-Two.

The comedians who walked into a London dairy which exhibited the legend in its window, "Families Supplied," and said they would take "a boy and a girl, please," might have been more successful in America, whence comes the news that a wife has presented her husband with eight babies in one day, says London Answers.

In the very same week the information was forthcoming that a young waitress at Durban had given birth to four children, and the announcement was accompanied by the assurance that "all were doing well."

Some years ago a Palermo woman, Rose Salem, presented her husband with five boys, all well formed, and, according to the doctor, "eating well and crying well." But she was a long way from wrestling the record from the peasant girl Gravata of Tuscany.

Gravata was the twin daughter of a woman who was one of triplets. The daughter married a man of her own class. She set the seal on the family reputation when she made her husband a present of six sons and followed the next year with five more!

After this she had triplets twice, which were followed by a quartette.
Then ensued a procession of ones and twos, and, finally, came four boys all together. This brought the aggregate number of her living children up to 62, and assured her fame in obstetrical annals as "the Gravata case."

Brand's "History of Newcastle" credits a similar feat to the wife of a poor weaver in Scotland, but does not state how many children arrived at one and the same time. Her family, however, numbered 62. Of these 46 boys and 4 girls survived to manhood and womanhood.

FARMERS THEIR OWN BOSSES

Government Surveyors Say Four-Fifths Own Their Land and Therefore Are Independent.

Government surveyors report now that eight out of each ten farmers in the United States are their own boss, while the same proportion of mechanics work for somebody else. The argument, of course, is for the advantage of independence the farmer has, and this ought to have great weight in any consideration given the problem.

Out of 10,682,944 individuals engaged at farm work in the United States 8,240,400 are classified as employers and independent workers. This means that they either own all or part of the plant and machinery employed in producing their output. Not all are land owners, but those who rent own a sufficient proportion of the machinery to give them the sense of prop-rietorship. It is this quality that gives them independence in action, says the Omaha Bee.

The farmer who owns his lands or his tools is independent because he works for himself, employing his own capital as well as his own labor.
While this condition prevails in America the republic is in very slight danger of revolution, for citizens so substantial as these are not given to revolt. They may combine to effect changes, but they do not strike at the foundations of liberty.

Swallows Obey Whistle.

An expert in bird lore has been making a study of the peculiar actions of several hundreds of chimney swallows that make their home in the tall chimney of a paper mill in Onea, Conn.
He has discovered that at exactly 6 o'clock each morning, when the whistle blows at a mill three miles away the hundreds of swallows rise from the chimney and fly away to their daily hunting grounds just as promptly as the hundreds of human workers answer the whistle. For two months, he says, they have not been absent or tardy. At night the birds return in small groups.

Preventable.

Sickness costs the United States $300,000,000 a year in lost wages and the total loss from preventable diseases and deaths is nearly $3,000,000, 000, according to the national health council. How much of this could be prevented by better laws to ensure pure water and milk, and abolish slums and overwork and overcrowding? How much by shutting out low-grade emigration?

Laughter Caused Death.

The metaphor, "dying of laughter," was translated into real fact in the case of an elderly man in Philadelphia, who was so tickled at the drollery of a movie comedian that he was unable to control his laughter and suddenly collapsed, dying in the arms of a woman sitting beside him. Physicians said that the victim's heart had been ruptured.

Citron's Remarkable Vitality.

A citron that she raised in 1921 was kept in the dining room of a St. Johnsbury (Vt.) woman. Wanting some seeds to start some plants in window boxes recently, she cut the citron open and found that part of the seeds had sprouted, one of the sprouts being nearly three inches long. The citron appeared to be in perfect condition.

ASTROLOGER TAKES BLAME FOR MURDER

Marshfield, Or.—Arthur Covell, crippled brother-in-law of Mrs. Ebba Covell, who was brutally slain last month, entered a plea of guilty to murder in the first degree before Judge Kendall of circuit court.

Covell is 46 years old and is an astrologist. He consulted the planets, he said, regarding all of his acts. His helplessness is due to an injury he received in an automobile wreck two years ago. His spine is hurt and he remains most of the time in a chair.

Alton Covell, the cripple's nephew, already had confessed to the actual murder of his stepmother, declaring that he was incited to the deed by his uncle.

Arthur Covell admitted that he had complete mental domination over his nephew, Alton, the accused youth.

Alton Covell is the son of Dr. Fred Covell, who has been held in jail since his wife's death.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

New Touring Car

Looking at the new touring car from the side, you are at once favorably impressed with the effect of longer, more graceful lines secured by enlarging the cowl, and raising the radiator.

Slanting windshield and one-man top lend material aid in giving the entire car a lower, more stylish appearance.

An apron connecting the radiator with the fender skirts is also a decided improvement.

A comfort feature much appreciated by owners, is the additional leg room provided by the enlargement of the cowl.

Allow us to show you the entire line of new Ford cars now on display in our show room.

These cars can be obtained through the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan.
