Punkin Center Gaining Fame
Punkin Center may yet become the Mecca of tourists if favorable reports are returned by passengers on the great red Portland-Pendleton highway stage after their brief visit to that hustling little burg one night last week. Jealous residents of other municipalities may say the driver of the bus got out to Tom Haddock's ranch by mistake and misdirection, but we suspect it was a deep scheme for publicity by the mayor and the boosters of Punkin Center, this diversion of traffic so far from the beaten path.

Baptist Services
Rev. Ira D. Hall will preach morning and evening, May 11, at the Baptist church. Morning subject, "Who is My Mother," evening theme, "An Earnest Desire." Rev. Hall is a former pastor and will receive a warm welcome by the Hermiston people. Mr. and Mrs. Hall will arrive Friday and will be at the home of Mr. Shotwell.

Senior Play May 17
The Senior class play "Come Out of the Kitchen" will be given May 17. The proceeds will be given to Ernest Addleman, a member of the class who has been seriously injured.

Mrs. Wilbur Hood, of Portland, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Johnson, a few days this week.

WILL R. KING
Candidate for Nomination for UNITED STATES SENATOR on Democratic Ticket
An unquestioned Progressive Democrat whose nomination will insure the election of a Democrat to the United States Senate in November. Judge King is the only Democratic candidate who has been placed in a position to know our state's needs and at the same time has had the experience in our national capital, essential to securing same.

His platform declares for equitable adjustment of the cost of construction of reclamation projects; he believes the government should build and stand the cost of the reservoir, main diversion dam, etc., the settler to be charged only with the cost of the project proper plus continued operation and maintenance of the same. If the benefit of his extensive knowledge and experience is desired, it may be secured by his nomination on May 16th. Otherwise; otherwise.

When in the reclamation service it was Judge King, as Chief Counsel and commissioner who, at a critical time persuaded Secretary Lane to direct the building of the West Umatilla extension.
