

A Wonderful Age

Truly, we are living in a wonderful age. Think of the new discoveries, radio, airplanes, submarines, wonders undreamed of a few years ago.

Comforts once considered the luxuries of kings are now the property of the humblest, and the common citizen, by touching a button, can make kings talk, choruses sing and bands play for his entertainment. We are progressing. Are you keeping step by adopting modern banking methods, or are you still doing business in the old, antiquated way? We offer you, all the facilities of a modern bank.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR UMATILLA COUNTY

Frank Woughter, Plaintiff, vs. S. E. Walker and Mary J. Walker, his wife and 3911. Charles Spencer and Gertrude Spencer, his wife, Defendants.

To S. E. Walker and Mary J. Walker, his wife, defendants above named.

In the Name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons. And you will take notice that if you fail to appear and answer the complaint within said time the plaintiff for want thereof will apply to the above entitled Court for the relief prayed for in plaintiff's complaint filed herein, to-wit: for a judgment and decree against the defendants S. E. Walker and Mary J. Walker, his wife for the sum of $100.00 with interest thereon at the rate of 7 per cent per annum from March 11, 1922 and the sum of $500.00 with interest thereon at the rate of 7 per cent per annum from December 8, 1920 and the further sum of $100.00 attorney's fees and for plaintiff's costs and disbursements in this suit and for the expenses of the foreclosure and sale of the property described in the complaint herein; and for a decree foreclosing plaintiff's mortgage and ordering to be sold the following described premises, to-wit the SE 1/4 of the NW 1/4 of the NE 1/4 of Section 5, Tp. 4 N. R. 29 E. W. M. in Umatilla County, Oregon; and that said mortgage be decreed to be a first lien on said real property and that the rights of defendants S. E. Walker and Mary J. Walker, his wife, in and to said premises be sold and the proceeds from the sale applied as provided by law and for such other and further relief as to the Court may seem just and equitable.

This summons is published pursuant to the order of the Honorable Gilbert W. Phelps, Judge of the above entitled Court, duly made and entered in the above entitled matter on the 30th day of August, 1924, directing that service herein be made once a week for a period of six consecutive weeks in the weekly Hermiston Herald and the first publication herein is made pursuant to said order on the 11th day of September, 1924.

Many years ago Mark Twain wrote one of his characteristic little sketches about a boy buying a jackknife. His observation was that in the presence of the infinite variety of shiny knives which the hardware man had in his showcase any knife that the boy selected from the rest looked like a clumsy, inferior affair, but that as soon as the boy had made his choice and got away from the influence of all of the other knives his particular knife became a precious and radiant thing of beauty. It was generations ago that the great humorist discussed this topic, but the cutlery have taken the lesson to heart at last and decided that they have been making too many kinds of pocketknives. Their interest in the matter is economic; their aim is more profits and they hope to achieve that end by ceasing to turn out many eccentric varieties of knives that are slow sale and not much good anyway. Their meeting was, in fact, a part of Mr. Hoover's comprehensive scheme for saving money by standardizing products and scrapping unnecessary models, but behind all of that one sees the eternal small boy, who is just the same now that he was when Mark Twain observed him relieved of an ancient embarrassment.—Detroit Free Press.

Queer Ceremonies at Nuptials of Indians

Among the Indians of Ecuador the marriage ceremony is a weird and tumultuous rite; this function begins with a feast in which all the neighboring families take part. At dawn they gather around huge bowls of a nauseous concoction known as chicha, which is a fermented and highly intoxicating drink made from the fruit of the chonta palm. While the drinking is going on the bride is being dressed. All her clothing is removed—a short process—and she is provided with a new skirt of blue cloth which reaches almost to her knees, says H. S. Dickey in Current History Magazine. Around her shoulders are tied two red bandanna handkerchiefs and across her forehead a red ribbon. Thus attired and accompanied by the guests she goes to the house of the bridegroom, who is dressed in white knee trousers with a bandanna handkerchief tied about his neck. Together they proceed to the house of the guaynaro, a sort of tribal chief who officiates at the marriage. Then two lines are formed, one of men and one of women, with the bride in the center. All stand for a minute facing each other; then, the women advance, the men recede. Thousands upon thousands of times this shuffling back and forth is repeated. Occasionally a dancer will drop out to refresh himself; at times one will fall to the ground exhausted; but the sturdiest manage to last out the whole affair, which continues throughout three days and three nights. The most stalwart Yumbo requires at least three weeks to recover from one of these functions.
