CLOTH, NOT A SUIT
 The report of the special committee on farm economics on its findings as to past records on this project made by farmers in securing profits or taking losses on various crops with recommendations as to future plans for farming has been submitted. It was awaited with interest and was and is being given close attention, both by farmers and by others in the community interested in farming.

In a nutshell, the purpose of the extended studies made by the committee of farmers, extension specialists and others who gave of their time to the work, was to study farm records made on the project in the past, find where those records were unprofitable, and to suggest how to substitute crops and methods that will be profitable.

Before one gets far into a study of the report the amount of work necessary in securing it becomes plainly evident. The committee has obvious evidence that it labored in arriving at its conclusions.

The conclusions, however, are not labored. They bear every appearance of having been arrived at by sane, conservative methods of reasoning. They are down on the ground, even in the matter of recommendations, which is something decidedly refreshing when it comes to a consideration of the problems of farmers.

If there are men on this project who expected the report of the committee to solve all their problems as to their future methods and plans in farming, those men are due to be disappointed. The report was not planned to be a formula for all the economic ills on the project. On the other hand those who chose to scoff at efforts to recommend changes and think no good thing can be worked out on paper should study the report with care, for its figures, particularly as to costs, are arresting.

The recommendations deserve to be studied attentively with the idea in mind of applying them as they may be utilized by the individual. The report is not a ready made suit of clothes. All the suggestions won't apply to every farmer. But some of the suggestions probably will apply to even the most progressive farmers. And there is enough cloth in the piece to enable a man to pick out the amount he needs for his own suit.

The state college extension service is to be congratulated for affording the means whereby such a study might be made with men on the project co-operating. To know with a fair degree of clearness where we are and how we got there, to realize the mistakes made, and to have sign posts erected directing us to a better position are about all the facts needed by an intelligent man. More study and industry in applying the information, accompanied by a sane enthusiasm, should make for some real solid substantial gains by farmers on the project.

It is becoming increasingly evident with the passing of every day that the race for the republican nomination for U. S. senator is between Frederick Stelwer and Robert N. Stanfield.

LOCAL GOLFERS SECOND IN ARLINGTON TOURNEY

In the golf tournament at Arlington Sunday between teams from Arlington, Boardman and Hermiston, the local players emerged with second honors. Arlington took first and Boardman, which was short on players and borrowed H. M. Straw, W. T. Roberts and Ralph Richards from Hermiston to make up a sextet, was third.

Dr. Sears was low stroke man for the locals with a total of 102 for the 18 holes, and the other Hermiston scores were as follows:

M. F. Clark, 49 and 56, 105; A. H. Norton, 55 and 61, 116; W. W. Felthouse, 57 and 56, 113; F. V. Prie, 60, 57, 117; and R. A. Brownson, 63, 65, 128. The average for Hermiston players was 113 1-2.

Another local tournament will soon be in progress.

Voyen's Knee Bothers

Carl Voyer, shortstop for the Hermiston Irrigators, has been bothered this week on account of an injury he suffered Sunday in the baseball game at Arlington. While covering second he took a throw on the wrong side of the bag, and a base runner struck his right leg at the knee.

Time To Pay Taxes.

The first half of the 1925 taxes which have been due for several weeks will be delinquent on and after Wednesday, May 5. Payments are reported to have been heavy at the office of the sheriff during the past week or two.

Election Saturday
 The election to determine whether the new contract between the United States government and the Hermiston Irrigation district shall be accepted by the settlers will be held Saturday. The voting place will be the office of the board secretary, W. J. Warner, and the polls will be open from 8 in the morning until 5 in the afternoon. Judges appointed to serve will be F. P. Phipps, R. C. Todd and E. P. Dodd.

IRRIGATORS TO BATTLE ARLINGTON HERE SUNDAY

The Hermiston Irrigators will be at home Sunday and will have Arlington as the opposition. The game will be the fourth for the locals in the regular league schedule. Interest in baseball is high now, due to the excellent showing the Shovel Pushers have made, and a big crowd is expected to be present to root for another victory.

The Reach of the Spoken Word

WHEN the small family group of primitive man expanded into the cave community, a means of communicating beyond the normal range of the voice became imperative. Then someone discovered that by making a speaking-trumpet of his hands, he could increase the reach of the spoken word, could add new effectiveness to the human voice. Other means of transmitting intelligence, in their turn, were found to serve the needs of man: the signal drum and the beacon fire, the written message, carried by runner, by rider, by water by rail, and finally, the telegraph.
