W. J. Warner was a business visitor in Pendleton Monday.

F. B. Swayze spent Monday in La Grande on business.

Miss Marian Briggs has returned from Albany where she taught in the schools during the past year.

A. E. Porter of Boardman transacted business here Monday. He owns quite an acreage of land in the Boardman district.

Clarence L. Carson is the owner of a new Ford roadster which he purchased from the Kellogg Motor Company.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Challis went to Portland last Saturday. Mrs. Challis remained in a hospital there for medical treatment.

The furniture of Marion McKee, formerly employed here by the Mitchell Drug company, was moved to Portland last week by the Challis Transfer company.

Mrs. Marjorie Hall and Miss Martha Winslow left Wednesday for Weiser, Idaho, where they will be guests for a week or ten days of their brother, Fred Winslow, who formerly resided here.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hough who left last week for Portland where Mr. Hough is attending the summer school session of University of Oregon are living at 444 Sellwood.

O. K. Mudge, operator at Hinkle, recently purchased a new Chrysler car from the Pendleton Auto company of Pendleton. He is also the owner of a new six tube radio set which he bought recently.

S. C. Lochrie, now of Ilwaco, Washington, was a visitor here Tuesday. He was formerly cashier of the First National bank and left about two and a half years ago.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist Episcopal church will hold an all day session on Wednesday, June 16, at the home of Mrs. F. P. Phipps. Cars will leave the church at 10:30 in the morning for the Phipps' home.

Miss Enid Waterman of Hermiston who taught in the Roseburg schools during the school year that just closed will spend the summer at Diamond lake.

Mrs. Merle M. Phelps and her sister, Miss Ruby Scott, have gone to Daniel, Wyoming, where they will be guests of their sister, Miss Ruth Franz.

Episcopal services will be held at the Christian Science hall Sunday evening at 7:30. Rev. Hinkle will conduct the services. All are welcome.

Miss Jessie Brierley will leave next week for Berkeley, California where she will attend summer school. The trip from Portland to San Francisco will be made by boat.

Raymond Longhorn, manager of local theatre, left Wednesday for Portland and other points to inspect a new machine which is guaranteed to cool air in public buildings. Plans are being made to install a machine in the local theatre for use during the summer months.

A number of bankers from Portland, the Willamette valley and from the southwestern part of Washington passed through Hermiston Tuesday and Wednesday en route to convention of the Washington Bankers association. A number of the bankers stopped at the First National bank of Hermiston to visit.

The bridge club met Monday, June 7, in the Mary Jane Tea Shoppe, with Mrs. W. L. Hamm and Mrs. Carl Voyer as hostesses. Four tables were in play during the afternoon, and Mrs. R. E. Mitchell and Mrs. J. L. Sears were prize winners.

The household goods of E. R. Crocker were moved to Portland today by George Challis. Mr. Crocker formerly an engineer in the reclamation service, recently resigned his position and expects to reside in Portland where he will do engineering work.

Little Miss Rosella Matott, seven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Matott of Hinkle, is in John Day. She went down several days ago preparatory to appearing on the program of the big Whiskey Gulch celebration held annually at Canyon City. The celebration this year started today and will continue on Friday and Saturday. Rosella is appearing in one of the six big feature acts secured by the management for this year's program.

Dr. M. S. Kern and his father were Hermiston visitors Tuesday. They both attended the weekly luncheon of the Commercial club, and Dr. Kern invited any Hermiston young men who want to go to the citizens' military training camp at Vancouver barracks to get in touch with Major C. C. Viner or himself at Pendleton. Dr. Sears of Hermiston has blanks for applicants to fill out if they desire to enroll for the month's camp. Expenses are paid by the government.

Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Matott, Pete Sheridan and John Lewis of the Hermiston district were in Echo Sunday for the formal celebration held in connection with the opening of the new club house built recently by the Echo Rod and Gun club. A shoot was held in the morning with a big dinner in the evening. A number of notable guests were present and spoke at the evening meeting, including Col. J. H. Raley, J. W. Maloney of the state game commission, and E. F. Averill, state game warden.

Florence Oil Cook Stove

COOK WITH FOCUSED HEAT

The intensely hot, clean, blue gas flame goes straight to the bottom of the kettle. This means quick cooking and a cool kitchen.

The Florence Stove is easily operated, positively regulated, wickless, valveless and absolutely dependable. Burns kerosene only, which is the cheapest fuel known.

On account of our overstock of Florence Oil Stoves, we are going to reduce the price on them and are offering real bargains. At the price we are now offering these stoves nobody can afford to cook over a hot coal or wood fire during the summer months. We also have a complete stock of the Red Star Stoves.

Make cooking a pleasure this summer with one of our oil gas ranges.
