BREVITIES
Occurrences of Interest Gleaned Here and There About the City and Neighborhood

Mrs. George Wagner went to Portland on Tuesday for a brief visit.

Carl Vopen went to Pendleton Tuesday afternoon on a business mission.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jones of Pendleton were the guests of friends on the project Sunday.

J. Leo Clark, prominent dairy farmer of this district, was a business visitor in Pendleton Friday.

T. E. Broyles and daughter Edna were visitors in Hermiston Tuesday from Boardman.

Mrs. George Sale and children left Sunday for points in Kansas where they will visit for several weeks.

Mrs. C. M. Dale left Tuesday morning for Gresham where she will spend several days visiting relatives.

Herbert Hedwall has returned to work at the Hurly Cash store after having spent a week's vacation in Portland visiting relatives.

Mrs. S. R. Madden of Caldwell, Idaho, spent the first part of the week here as a guest at the home of her brother, E. P. Dodd.

Local baseball players have been practicing every evening this week in preparation for their games Sunday and Monday with the fast Heppner nine.

Leslie Packard took down 500 sacks to Boardman Tuesday which were for the use of several growers of early potatoes who plan a shipment from there this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Johnson will leave Friday for a three month vacation. They plan to spend a part of the time at their summer home at Rhododendron on the Mount Hood Loop.

Mrs. Clara L. Bryan is here as a guest of her sister, Mrs. H. T. Fraser. She was a teacher in the schools at Great Falls, Montana, during the past years. She will spend the summer here.

J. Morris Dunning, sometimes called John, comes to Hermiston at least once a month from Pendleton in his official capacity as circulation manager of the East Oregonian. He was here Tuesday.

Quite a number of local people are planning to go to Portland on the Union Pacific excursion which will leave here early Sunday morning. The special train will arrive in Hermiston Tuesday morning.

J. M. Biggs left Tuesday for Lebanon and Albany on business. He will return home by way of Portland where he will be joined by Mrs. Biggs and sons who have been visiting relatives for more than two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Witherell and family of Pendleton, Mrs. Lucinda Randall and Miss Eva Randall stopped in Hermiston for a short time Wednesday morning. They were en route home after a fishing trip on Deschutes river and at East lake.

The warm weather that has prevailed for the past several days has made the bathing beach at Umatilla popular with Hermiston residents, and not an evening passes that several carloads of people do not visit the beach.

Mrs. E. L. Cherry, accompanied by her daughter, Mildred, left Tuesday for Geneva, Nebraska, where she was called by reason of the death Sunday of her father, W. S. Huston. At Pendleton Mrs. Cherry joined her sister, Mrs. W. L. Nicholas of Oakland, Oregon.

J. B. "Butch" Mall is back at work for the Standard Oil company again on the truck after an absence from work for several weeks. He took a "vacation" by having small pox and was quite ill for several days. He returned to work Monday morning.

Mrs. L. C. Dyer is in Denver, Colorado, where she was called last Thursday by the death of her sister, Miss Alice Patterson. Miss Patterson's death followed an operation. She visited her sister here a few years ago. Mrs. Dyer will remain for a brief visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl McNaught and family went to Portland Monday where Mrs. McNaught and the members of the family will reside during the summer months. Mr. McNaught will divide his time between Portland and Hermiston in the interests of the hay business.

Gus Tomas and family have returned to Cold Springs after a trip taken through California points. He was gone three weeks and did not see any country that looked good enough to him to make him want to move. At one place they paid 20 cents a gallon for drinking water, he said.

H. L. Westover, in charge of alfalfa investigations for the United States department of agriculture, was here Saturday at the Hermiston experiment station conferring with Supt. H. K. Dean. The two men went to Prosser, Washington, station Sunday.

George Shields of the Shields Fruit company of Frewater, was here for several days this week looking over the early apple crop. The fruit ripened so rapidly that carload shipments were found to be impracticable. Several truck shipments have been made out of this district during the past week.

Mrs. F. B. Swayze and Mrs. E. R. Mitchell were hostesses for the Monday bridge club Monday evening. The club was entertained at Hotel Corlis, four tables being in play during the evening. Prizes were won by Mrs. A. W. Purdy and Mrs. A. H. Norton. Monday's meeting was the last of the club until fall.

Mrs. W. H. Hines and Mrs. P. M. Bandy of Denver, Colorado, left several days ago for Tacoma, Washington, to visit their mother. While here they were guests at the home of their brother, Fred Shook. They got here in time to see Hermiston's baseball team suffer the first defeat of the season at the hands of Ione recently.

Miss Agnes Little, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Little, is attending the national convention of Delta Gamma, women's sorority, which convened at Mackinac Island, Michigan, on Monday. Miss Little is president of Alpha Eta chapter at Whitman college. The convention runs five days. She is expected home next week.

Mrs. F. B. Swayze returned last Thursday from Palo Alto, California, after a visit of several weeks. She attended the commencement exercises for the graduation of Miss Doris Swayze. Miss Swayze is attending summer school at Oregon Agricultural college and will not return home until about August 1. Frank Swayze is working with a mining concern near Lompoc, California, during the vacation period.

"Old More Interesting Than New," she says

"Of course, new furniture adds charm to the home. But," says Mrs. Johnson, "in every long-established household there are sure to be old pieces which, when refinished with Acme Quality Products are far more interesting than the new." There is an Acme Quality Product for all furniture, new or old. Refinish your old pieces at once—with
