

BETTER HOMES
THRIFT
promotes happy homes. The family that's industrious and saving is always the model one. There's a tendency today to mortgage the future to provide luxuries for the present. This invariably means broken homes and wrecked lives. Start building up your bank account TODAY and you'll pave the way for another happy home.

WOMEN'S DORMITORY AT WHITMAN IS COMPLETED

Walla Walla, Wash., Aug. 12—The completion of the new woman's dormitory at Whitman college not only makes possible the centralizing of the housing facilities for women college students, but it makes possible the expansion program for Whitman Conservatory of Music which is demanded by the increasing number of music students being attracted to Whitman by the musical advantages offered. By direction of the board of overseers Green Cottage will become the central dormitory for conservatory women students, with its own dining room, and is being refurnished so as to be ready for occupancy with the opening of the fall term which begins Tuesday, September 7.

The recent installation of a new pipe organ in MacDowell Hall, provides much needed added facilities to the organ department. Prof. John McCormick, of the faculty of the music school of Oberlin, Ohio, has been engaged to head this department, taking the place made vacant by the resignation of Mrs. Rowena Ludwigs Lester.

Whitman conservatory of music, while a part of Whitman college, has its own administration, and accepts students who are not enrolled in the college. The handsome, three story, fireproof structure which houses the school, is devoted entirely to the teaching and practice of music and is one of the most modern and best equipped conservatories in the west.
