James Marcum used to be here at times when his son, Roy Marcum, operated a barber shop in Hermiston. Mr. Marcum renewed old acquaintances Tuesday for a time. A number of bridge parties have been given by Hermiston hostesses during the past week. Saturday afternoon Mrs. J. F. McNaught and Mrs. Charles Taylor entertained delightfully at the McNaught residence for a party of five tables. Tuesday afternoon Mrs. W. A. Leathers entertained at her country home, four tables being in play. Prize winners were Mrs. F. B. Swayze and Mrs. E. L. Cherry. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. SCHOOL NOTES

Monday afternoon the tryouts were held in the school assembly for the debate team. Six students argued the question, "Resolved, That the United States should enter the World Court." The affirmative side was taken by Joe McNaught, John Pace and Vernon Haffrah, and the supporters of the negative were Jane Warner, Gerald McKenzie and Harvey De Moss. The arguments on both sides were good and the competitors were so evenly matched that it was decided to keep all six on the debate team. However, two substitutes are to be appointed from this number later.

The football game on Saturday with Condon high school ended in a score which was very satisfactory. There will be no more football games here until the Thanksgiving game with Wasco high school. This promises to be a good game with plenty of excitement in store for the crowd.

There were several class meetings this week. The freshmen met on Monday and decided to levy 25 cents a semester as class dues and all members were urged to pay their student body dues. The seniors were informed at their class meeting that their class pins have arrived. These pins are very pretty and will be an ornament to any suit or dress. At a sophomore class meeting on Tuesday dues of 50 cents a semester were agreed on.

In the quarterly examinations in the eighth grade, the three pupils ranking highest were, in the order named, Hazel Peugh, Leona Dyer and Mary Brownson.
