The Neighborhood club will meet Friday, December 3, for an all day meeting at the home of Mrs. Bayter Hutchison. Bring quilt pieces, needles and thimble.

Herbert Young, field man for the American Red Cross, addressed the students of the high school at a special assembly period Tuesday afternoon. He explained and demonstrated first aid methods that should be used in meeting emergencies. The correct measures to take to render first aid treatment in cases of burns, near drowning, hurts sustained in automobile accidents and other similar emergencies were discussed by Mr. Young in his talk. He works in the field and is giving special instructions to railroad employees. He came here from Umatilla.

Before buying a radio ask to hear the new modern Gillfillan Neutrodyne Radios with Rola cone speaker at Mitchell Drug Co.

Mrs. Marjorie Hall and Miss Martha Winslow left last Friday by motor for Glendale, California, where they expect to spend the winter. They spent the first night in Hood River and left Saturday morning in eight inches of snow. They arrived in Salem Saturday evening where they visited their brother, Lawrence Winslow, who is attending Willamette university.

Two bridge parties given by Mrs. J. P. Dodd and Mrs. F. C. McKenzie last Thursday and Friday nights at the McKenzie home proved delightful. Seven tables were in play during both evenings. Prize winners at the first party were Mrs. A. H. Norton, George Briggs and Mrs. H. T. Fraser. Friday night's winners were W. W. Felthouse, Mrs. R. A. Brownson and E. L. Cherry.

Samuel M. Reihl of Seattle was here Wednesday to visit his mother, Mrs. C. M. Reihl. Mrs. Reihl celebrated her 93rd birthday anniversary. She is enjoying very good health.

Gillfillan radios, 5 and 6 tube Neutrodyne, the standard in radio. Ask to hear Gillfillan at Mitchell Drug Company.

Eighteen tables of bridge and 500 were in play Monday night when the American Legion auxiliary entertained at Hotel Hermiston at a benefit affair. The big crowd enjoyed the evening of cards and the supper which was served later. Mrs. Carl Voven headed the committee in charge of the party. Prize winners in bridge were F. C. McKenzie and Helstand Moore, and in 500, George Wagner and Harry McMillan.

The pre-Christmas bazaar, planned for several weeks by the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Episcopal church, will be held Saturday, December 4. The bazaar has been planned with the idea of offering suitable Xmas presents, and the goods sold will include fancy work, house dresses, aprons and similar articles.

Mrs. Jack Waller was hostess at a pleasant bridge party last Thursday afternoon. Prizes were won by Mrs. C. S. McNaught, Mrs. Earl Mitchell and Mrs. Chas. Taylor. There were seven tables.

SCHOOL NOTES

The regular meeting of the Parent Teacher's association was held last Thursday at 3 o'clock. A musical program was furnished by the seventh and eighth grades. Miss Flannigan, the county nurse, gave a short talk, but other arranged talks were postponed until the next meeting on account of the poor attendance. The next regular meeting will be held the second Thursday in December.

Wednesday morning Mr. and Mrs. Coker spoke to the high school students. Mrs. Coker's talk especially satisfied the girls and convinced them that it is only a question of time until there is a woman president of the United States.

Last week the football squad had their pictures taken, and these with some sent from Wasco of their team, are to be used as advertising for what promises to be the best game of the season. This is the game between Wasco and Hermiston on Thanksgiving day at 11 o'clock.

Visitors to the grades this week were Mrs. McGill, Mrs. Agnew, Mrs. Quinney, Mrs. Redmond and Mrs. Evans.

The glee clubs are renewing their efforts to make their operetta, "The Windmills of Holland" as perfect as possible. The cast practices in all available time during school hours and after school as well. The costumes and wigs will be finished this week in time for the dress rehearsal which will be held after the Thanksgiving vacation.

The football team will enjoy a Thanksgiving dinner on Saturday night. The materials for the banquet have been donated, and if all accounts are true, will satisfy all appetites.

IRRIGON

One question that this community seems to be quite well agreed upon is gravel road construction for on Saturday 26 votes were cast in favor of a five mill special tax. Not a vote was cast against the proposed tax.

The school board met Thursday evening and prepared the budget for the coming year. It calls for the raising of about fifteen thousand dollars by special levy.

The H. E. C. social on Saturday night was quite a success. Through the courtesy of the Mitchell Drug Co. of Hermiston, the club had the use of an excellent Victrola for the evening.

Mrs. Nestor Seaman, accompanied by Miss Freda, left Saturday for a week's sojourn with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Smith, at Cosmopolis, Washington.

Earl Lamoreaux spent the weekend with his family. Mr. Lamoreaux has employment at Arlington.

The church folks enjoyed a community dinner on Sunday in the church dining room. There also was a good attendance for the services in the evening of that day. Sinners always welcome.

Professor Hendricks is with us again for an indefinite stay. He has spent several weeks in the Wallowa section.

Roscoe Williams and family were Pendleton visitors on Saturday.

Supt. A. C. Houghton of the West Extension project, was calling on friends here Sunday. Come again.

Ray S. Lamoreaux of Arlington was at home over Sunday.

The office building for the project is nearing completion, and is a credit to the business section of this fair city of perpetual sunshine.

TAKEN UP NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that I have taken up and have kept for about seven days at the M. Lopp ranch five miles east of Hermiston the following described animal:

Bay mare, weight about 1200, blind in left eye, wire cut on left hind foot. No visible brand.

Said animal will be sold, unless redeemed, at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in hand on the 3rd day of December, 1926, at the above described ranch at 10 o'clock.

Dated at Hermiston on this 18th day of November, 1926.
(Signed) Clarence Billington, (11-2tc)
