Some of the local people who were in Pendleton Monday night to see "The Student Prince" were Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Warner and Mr. and Mrs. F. C. McKenzie, Dr. and Mrs. F. V. Prime and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Kellogg and Miss McCann and Miss Rugg and Tom Campbell.

W. G. Ide, manager of the land settlement work for the Oregon State Chamber of Commerce and the Portland Chamber of Commerce, was a visitor in Hermiston Friday and Saturday on business connected with his department. The department is doing considerable work in attracting settlers to the Hermiston country.

Last Friday morning Sol Baum of Pendleton came down to the west end of the county to hunt ducks. The weather did not favor that sport so Mr. Baum drove down the Umatilla river below Hermiston and tried his luck at steelhead fishing. Within a few minutes he had landed a six pound beauty. His is the first catch reported this season.

Idaho is about the only state that had a big honey crop this year, according to George Bancroft who returned from Walla Walla Sunday where he attended the session of the Washington State Bee Keepers association. The Idaho bee keepers have been dumping their stocks on a full market, regardless of low prices, and this action had the effect of bearing the market for all producers, Mr. Bancroft said.

Why not buy mileage instead of tires. I sell you guaranteed mileage in Mellinger tires. V. S. Keikkala, Hermiston. 13-1tc

"It was only six above zero out at the ranch this morning, and it warmed up considerably there today," Tom Boylen Jr. said Tuesday when in Hermiston. "We had a blanket of snow about six inches deep on the ground, so wheat and grass are protected from the cold. Up in the hills the snow is a lot deeper even than it is at the ranch. I was talking with Gus Smythe of Arlington over the telephone this morning, and the cold snap caught that country without snow on the ground. They're worried about their wheat."

Mellinger regular tires guaranteed for 12,000 miles, and Mellinger De Luxe cord guaranteed for 15,000 miles. De Luxe Balloon, 15,000 miles. Our prices can't be beat. V. S. Keikkala, Hermiston. 13-1tc

Swan-Song Legend
There is no scientific ground for the legend that a swan sings beautifully just before it dies. No swan ever makes any sound which resembles singing unless it is the so-called whistling swan of Iceland. According to Greek mythology, Apollo, the god of music, passed into a swan. "Swan song" is now popularly applied to a poet, artist or composer.—Pathfinder Magazine.
