Occurrences of Interest in Hermiston and Those Affecting the City and Neighborhood

C. E. Burk spent several days in Portland this week on business.

Mrs. J. S. Harvey and children were guests at the Randall home in Pendleton over the week end.

Col. J. F. McNaught is making a satisfactory recovery, according to information received by Carl McNaught from his mother. Col. McNaught is in the Portland Medical hospital.

G. F. Hedwall and son Monte returned Tuesday from Portland, where they attended the funeral services for Mrs. J. P. Hedwall of Warren, Oregon, wife of Mr. Hedwall's brother.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Fortier and daughter Norma of Boardman were here Sunday as guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Campbell. Mr. Fortier is agent for the Standard Oil company at Boardman.

Mrs. A. W. Isbell returned to her home in Hood River last Friday after having been here as a guest of her mother, Mrs. Anna Strohm. Mrs. Strohm accompanied Mrs. Isbell home for a visit and rest.

M. W. Sims, local business man, has been able to be out on the streets again this week following his return Monday from Pendleton where he submitted to an operation for appendicitis.

Miss Jean Rugg, faculty member of the Hermiston high school, has received notification of her election, to the faculty of the Park Rose high school, just outside of Portland. She will teach in the English department.

Mrs. E. G. Wilson and son have gone to Ellensburg, Washington, to join Mr. Wilson after a visit here with her sister, Miss Ada Soneson, and other friends. Mr. Wilson is in the reclamation service on the Kittitas project.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Norton entertained at a bridge party at their home Wednesday night. Guests for five tables were present. The prizes were won by Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Fraser and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Harvey.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Prindle's plans for leaving this week for California were changed when he received a telegram from his son advising him to postpone the trip overland for at least two weeks. Floods and inclement weather are said to be prevailing in the state of perpetual sunshine.

Charlie Baker has sometimes been accused of liking to chew tobacco, and under pressure he will plead guilty to that charge. The other day he asked a friend for some kind of tobacco to chew. "I quit this morning," Charlie admitted, "and I'm plumb tired chewing this gum."

"Our lamb crop was very good, but spring feed in this lower country has been poor this season," Tom Boyten Jr. said Monday while in town.

"We have moved our flocks to the hills. I look for good fall feed here on the lower grazing grounds, but the freeze when the ground was bare last December killed forage grasses."

At the Baptist church Sunday, April 17, Bible school 10 A. M. 11 A. M. an Easter service. Special numbers by members of the Bible school. Solo, Miss Goldie Mumma. An Easter message by the pastor. The Lord's Supper at the close of the morning service. Evening service, 7:45 P. M. Theme, An Easter Song for Us All. Solo, Miss Goldie Mumma. A cordial welcome to all. A. J. Ware, pastor.

Mrs. Louise Caswell and son Peter and Miss Helen Pilkington returned to Portland Friday afternoon after a visit of a week here as guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Mitchell. They were honored at several parties during the visit. Mrs. Mitchell entertained for them Friday afternoon at a bridge luncheon. Guests to make five tables were present. Mrs. A. H. Norton won first prize and Mrs. C. C. Durey, second prize. The guests received prizes Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. F. V. Frine entertained for Mrs. Caswell and Miss Pilkington a luncheon and bridge for guests to make three tables. Mrs. F. B. Swayze and Mrs. E. P. Dodd won the playing prizes.

EASTER TOPIC DISCUSSED BY NEIGHBORHOOD CLUB

The Neighborhood club held its regular meeting April 8 at the home of Mrs. Thomas Wilson. Eighteen ladies were present, which was a very good attendance for this busy season. An excellent Easter program had been arranged by Mrs. C. L. Upham, chairman of the program committee. The first number of the program was a sacred song by the club, and was followed by several good articles pertaining to Easteride which were read by different members. A couple of readings by Mrs. Belcher, one "Springtime," the other "Jim and I," were well received. A reading by Mrs. Hutchinson and a clever stunt by Mrs. Upham closed the program after which the ladies were invited out into the spring sunshine where a hunt for Easter baskets was begun. The first lady to return and find her place at the table was Mrs. Belcher, who received as first prize a fancy Easter egg. Mrs. Graham received a second prize.

The baskets were beautiful in their bright colors, and were filled with delightful goodies. As a symbol of the approach of Easter a small basket filled with little yellow chickens decorated the dining table. Also the place cards carried out the Easter theme and were artistically decorated with hand paintings, done by little Miss Lynch, formerly of the Portland schools.

The next meeting of the club will be April 22 at the home of Mrs. Lynch.

The boys have started practice for a track meet which will be held here April 23. Umatilla, Echo, Stanfield and Hermiston will compete in the meet.

The boys' and girls' glee clubs are working hard on a program to be presented at the meeting of the Parent-Teacher association Friday evening.

The girls' glee club presented an interesting program last Saturday at the meeting held in the Baptist church. Several numbers were sung, including the "Canoe Song," and "A Perfect Day."

Minnehaha Locals
Mr. and Mrs. Clyde McElroy and little son have returned to their home after having spent the winter in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Planigan, Lester Planigan, Dayton Harris, Mabel McElroy, Oma McElroy, Alberta McElroy, Dona McElroy and Mrs. Matott attended the county declamatory contest for the grades held in Pendleton.

Rosella Matott, a pupil of the third grade of Minnehaha school was the only contestant of the west end division in the grades to win a medal. She won first in the lower humorous division. Competition was very keen in this class. "Wood Ticks" by Billy Fletcher of the Fletcher orchestra received second place.

Billy Jackson who won first in the west end contest in lower dramatic class was prevented from speaking at Pendleton as the board in charge classed his selection as humorous. Neva Richards of Hermiston school and received second was also prevented from speaking for the same reason. The selection which won the first medal at Pendleton in this division was "Playing Suffragette" by Maida Bellows of Milton.
