Their Sickness Banished by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Mrs. Nina Matteson, Box 206, Oxford, N. Y., writes: "If it had not been for your medicine, I could not have done my work as it should have been done. Mother told me of Lydia E. Heals Eczema in 7 Days or Less Or Your Money Back

Here is a surgeon's wonderful prescription now dispensed by pharmacists at trifling cost, that will do more towards helping you get rid of unsightly spots and skin diseases than anything you've ever used. Not only does this great healing antiseptic oil promote rapid and healthy healing in open sores and wounds, but boils, abscesses and ulcers that are discharging are almost immediately relieved and cleanly healed. In skin diseases its action is little less than magical. The itching of eczema is instantly stopped; the eruptions dry up and scale off in a very few days. The same is true of barbers' itch, salt rheum and other irritating and unsightly skin troubles. You can obtain Moore's Emerald Oil in the original bottle at any modern drug store. It is safe to use, and failure in any of the ailments noted above is next to impossible. Your druggist can supply you at any time.

Poet Impressed With Huge Electric Signs

Marinetti, the Italian futurist poet, suddenly appeared as the champion of electric signs and appealed to Signor Mussolini to reconsider the Duce's decision to abolish sky-sign advertising in the big Italian cities. This caused the Manchester Guardian to remark that not only professed futurist poets have found an element of vast fascination in electric advertising. When Rupert Brooke first arrived in New York and saw the nightly display on Broadway he was greatly impressed. "The recurrent appearance and disappearance of vast fiery toothbrushes, medicine bottles, flaming and immortal celestial underwear, appeared to him like a nightly conflict of the gods, fighting endlessly, indefinitely for New York." One female figure impressed Brooke more than the Mona Lisa. It was "all aflame against the darkness, beautiful, archaic like an immortal Greek figure." - Pierre Van Paassen, in the Atlanta Constitution.
