There's No Excuse

For sending out of town for printing. Very few individuals or firms are doing that today for the simple reason that they can depend on the Herald's fast service, dependable workmanship and reasonable prices for quality printing.

In addition, customers have the knowledge that any aid in the way of special knowledge about forms we have, is at their disposal in helping them solve the problem of that new piece of printing. Figure your next job of printing with your community printing factory.

BREVITIES
Occurrences of Interest Gleaned Here and There About the City and Neighborhood

F. C. Frederickson of Irrigon was Hermiston visitor Monday.

F. B. Swartz returned Wednesday from Willamette valley points.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Mitchell are in Portland this week to attend buyers' week.

Mrs. J. C. Downing and son John have gone to Pendleton where they plan to make their home.

B. S. Kingsley is in Portland this week to attend buyers' week in the interest of his store.

Senator Steiwer of Pendleton was in Hermiston for a short time this morning. He was en route to Portland.

Miss Virginia Rodda has returned from La Grande after attending the summer normal session there which closed yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Morlan left Sunday for Portland where they are participating in the activities of buyers' week.

Mrs. J. D. Harrah is in Portland where she is receiving special training in work connected with hospital management.

The hinterland behind Lewiston, Idaho, has great crops this year, according to E. P. Dodd who returned this week from a trip through that country.

Loren O'Gara, formerly one of the owners of the Arlington Bulletin, was a visitor in Hermiston Tuesday evening for a few hours. He was en route to his home in Pendleton.

Mrs. O. T. Lockridge left Tuesday morning by stage for Portland. From there she plans to go to Lebanon and then to Oregon City. She probably will be gone until the middle of September.

Miss Iris Little has returned home after spending six weeks in University of Washington where she did summer work. She will be graduated from Whitman college next June.

Prof. H. V. Kepner of Denver was a guest of his sister, Mrs. N. W. Bloom Monday for a short time. He was on his way home after having conducted a large touring party from Denver through the National parks and to Alaska.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Waller and children left Monday on a vacation trip. They planned to go over the McKenzie pass and then later to Salem where they will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Phipps, former Hermiston residents.

Relatives who have been visiting at the home of Joe Norton and his mother for more than a week left Tuesday morning for Portland and other Willamette valley points. Mr. Norton accompanied them as far as Portland to attend buyers' week.

Yes, friends, during hot weather it's hot.

Sunday W. W. Felthouse returned from the coast after a vacation of more than a week spent with his family. On his return Carl McNaught filled the gasoline tank and headed for the coast to join his family for a few days.

Wheat in the Lexington district is yielding at rates from 20 to 25 bushels per acre, and some fields are reported to be doing even better, according to Julius Gimble and Frank Ward who have returned from there after hauling some wheat.

The Willamette valley is no cooler than the Hermiston country according to the opinion expressed by Dr. Sears after he and Mrs. Sears and baby had returned from the valley and coast points following a vacation of slightly more than a week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Little, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Pugh and children, left early Sunday morning for Portland where Mrs. Pugh went to visit friends and relatives. Her home is in Spokane. Mr. and Mrs. Little returned home Monday.

Dave Middlesdorf was in Bend Sunday where he played baseball with the Pendleton Buckaroos against Bend. The Bucks won the game, 6 to 5. Dave admitted that the Bend catcher was good—he caught practically every ball the pitcher delivered while Dave was at bat.

Usual services will be conducted at the Baptist church Sunday. Bible school at 10 o'clock in the morning, and Rev. J. W. Dowell will preach at 11 o'clock. Union services will be held in the Methodist Episcopal church in the evening with Rev. S. Hamrick in charge. Rev. A. J. Ware, pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Savely returned last week from Portland where they visited his brother, Wilburn Savely, who is slowly recovering from a number of surgical operations. He has been in the Portland sanitarium for 18 weeks. He spent two or three years here, with Lee Savely several years ago.

RAZZ-A-DOODLE ELECTS GEORGE WAGNER TO MEMBERSHIP WHEN HE FORGETS TO GO TO BED

George "Slick" Wagner was unanimous elected to membership in the Razz-A-Doodle club this week. It happened over sleep.

Mr. Wagner is reputed to be about the earliest riser in town. He gets up in the morning with the birds and does his work while the rest of the town is refreshing itself with sleep.

He pays for the distinction, however, by being very sleepy the rest of the day. He needs a siesta at noon, and if he rests very long at any time during the day, his eyes are likely to close in restful slumber.

The other evening he went sound asleep after having risen particularly early in the morning. Mrs. Wagner tried to awaken him at bedtime but George was sleeping too blissfully to get back to consciousness. Thinking he would soon awaken, Mrs. Wagner gave up her efforts to rouse him and retired.

George awoke in the morning, chilled and sore, with a membership in the Razz-A-Doodle club.

Burton Hutton was here today to attend the poultry demonstration given by H. E. Cosby.
