"How best can I trade in my present car for a new car?"

WHEN you are ready to trade in your present car for a new car, you naturally want full value for your present car. But most of all you want full new car value.

It will therefore pay you to consider varying trade-in allowance offers in the light of these basic facts:

1 Your present car has only one fundamental basis of value: i.e., what the dealer who accepts it in trade can get for it in the used car market.

2 Your present car has seemingly different values because competitive dealers are bidding to sell you a new car.

3 The largest allowance offered is not necessarily the best deal for you. Sometimes it is; sometimes it is not.

4 An excessive allowance may mean that you are paying an excessive price for the new car in comparison with its real value.

5 First judge the merits of the new car in comparison with its price, including all delivery and finance charges. Then weigh any difference in allowance offered on your present car.

6 Remember that you are making a purchase—not a sale. You are buying a new car and simply using your present car as a credit against the new car's purchase price.

WE publish this message, believing that the public is entitled to have all the facts. And we invite you to send for the facts about General Motors products by using the coupon below.

Chester Pelmulder was a week end visitor with friends on the project, leaving Sunday for Woodburn, Oregon, where his parents live. He was a former resident here and a student in the local high school. At present he is a radio operator in San Francisco and is on a two months vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Helstead Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Richards entertained at the Moore home on Butter creek Tuesday evening. Guests motored out from Hermiston and made up seven tables for bridge after which refreshments were served and prizes awarded. High score for ladies went to Mrs. W. W. Felthouse and for gentlemen to F. B. Swayze. Mrs. R. E. Mitchell and Mr. Moore won the prize for high scoring couple, and consolation prize was won by Mrs. Hitt.

Season Closes Oct. 30
The Chinese pheasant season will close on Sunday, October 30, according to A. W. Rossow, deputy game warden. Some hunters have the idea that they may hunt pheasants or partridges on the last day of the month, but the idea is not correct. Mr. Rossow stated.
