On November 8 the Hermiston Irrigation District will elect two members, one to serve for three years, the other to fill the unexpired term of the late Colonel McNaught. The directors are responsible for operating a business worth several million dollars. Their selection calls for the best thought of each individual water user to the end that the best talent available be secured to make decisions and carry responsibility. Politics and personal animosities should not be injected into the election, and the sober common sense of each individual should be brought to bear with just one thought in mind—to elect the biggest and best men available.

Ruth Elder almost spanned the Atlantic and then took the flu. That's a flight from the heroic to the commonplace.

Pheasant shooting will soon be over for this ear, but local men are already shooting ducks and geese.

LINDY ENDS TOUR

Reaches New York After Journey Around United States.
Mitchell Field, N. Y.—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh swung down out of the air Sunday, completing a 22,350 mile tour of the country, in his Spirit of St. Louis, just one minute ahead of his schedule time.

He greeted questions as to his future plans with a smile and a shake of the head.

"I haven't any," he said, and his expression indicated his pleasure at once more being a free agent, with no fixed schedule driving him on daily.

"Where can we see you tomorrow?" a reporter asked.

"Why, I don't believe that's going to be necessary," he replied. "I feel that I have won the right to drop out of the public view for a while."

One Family Runs Mill 108 Years.

Dexter, Maine.—A survey of the woolen mills of the country has brought to light that the Amos Abbot Woolen company here has been operating for 108 years. It has been run over that long span of years by the same family.

Poindexter Will Seek Senate Seat
Spokane, Wash.—Miles Poindexter of Spokane, ambassador to Peru, announced his candidacy for the republican nomination for United States senator here. He said he would resign his ambassadorship and enter the campaign next March.

SCHOOL NEWS

We students of the third year English class of the Hermiston high school have decided to add some news to the Herald. We are reviving the old custom of compiling the school news and putting it in the local paper. We hope to increase the interest in the school activities by telling what work the students are doing in school activities.

The officers are: Editor-in-chief, Walther Ott; associate editor, Miss Alice McCollum; athletic reporter, William Rodda; society reporter, Leo Earnheart; dramatic reporter, Everett Hammond; class reporter, Walter Anderson; and grade reporter, Ruth Hamrick.

The three grades, sixth, seventh and eighth, are each giving a play on Friday, October 28. The one given by the eighth graders is called, "The Trunk From India." The sixth grade play is just two simple drills. The one given by the seventh grade is "Cinderella Married." These will all be given the same night. Miss Ragna Broston, Mr. Walter Warner and Mr. Ed. Benschel are the directors.

The high school will have another tennis tournament. It will be this coming Thursday, October 27, at 3:15. This tournament will be held with Echo high on the Hermiston courts. Everyone is welcome.

The high school football eleven is putting in a week of hard practice to be in shape for the coming game with Condon Saturday, October 29. The game will be at Condon.

Harry Dyer went to Pendleton Saturday, October 22.

The work of the science classes was slightly hampered until the arrival of badly needed laboratory equipment. The students are now busy catching up with their work.

The fourth and fifth grades are putting on Halloween programs Friday afternoon under the direction of Miss Adrean Crockett and Miss Vera Thompson.

John Newell, Dorothy Straw, and Maxine Avery went to Pendleton Friday, October 21, to see the football game between Washington state college freshmen and the Oregon "Babes."

Sunday, October 23, Monroe Swarner broke his leg while playing.

Miss Adrean Crockett visited in Walla Walla over the week-end.

Mr. Walter Warner visited at his home in Irrigon during the week-end.

Anna Gaither went to Pendleton Saturday, October 22.

Harry Dyer went to Pendleton Saturday, October 22.
