SCHOOL NEWS

A delightful Halloween party was given by Ruth Cherry Monday evening, October 31. There were 18 in all dressed in Halloween costumes and masked.

The annual high school Halloween dance took an unusual turn Monday night, a very early evening dance, which began at 6 and ended at 9:30.

The question for debate this term in the high schools is Resolved: That the jury system be so changed that a verdict may be permitted without unanimous vote.

Loretta Furrer, a second grade pupil, fell down the basement steps Tuesday morning and broke her arm between the wrist and elbow.

Much credit is due Miss Ragna Brostén, Mr. Walter Warner and Mr. A. E. Bensei who presented the grade plays last Friday evening, October 28.

The high school play, "It Happened in June," will be presented at the high school auditorium November 5, at 8 o'clock sharp.

Coach Walenta has been having some trouble getting enough boys out for football practice. He should have at least two teams, or 22 fellows, but the average is more nearly 16.

HERMISTON LOCALS

"I'm working into the strawberry game as fast as seems wise and possible," said J. S. White of Irrigon while in Hermiston last Saturday.

Dr. C. M. Dale is making a place for himself in the community of Durfur where he recently established established himself in the practice of dentistry, according to W. L. Doud, real estate man of Durfur who was here last week.

About 10 days ago Joe Dyer was in an accident that almost resulted fatally when a hay derrick fell and struck him a glancing blow. He is able to be up and around again but still feels some of the results of his accident. "Mother and I have managed to get quite a few good laughs out of some of the developments that resulted from my bump," he said.

"Lawrence Hughes asked to be remembered to his friends in Hermiston when I was up at Pilot Rock the other day," said Dan Follett. Mr. Follett went up to bring back a Short-horn bull which he bought from Mr. Hughes.

At the Baptist church Sunday, November 6, Bible school at 10 a. m. The special meeting is growing in interest with each day. Captain Hull of the Life Line is leading the singing and assisting in the meeting.

"Farming has certainly changed in our district during the past few years," said W. O. Staver, Pilot Rock attorney, while a Hermiston visitor Saturday. He provided transportation for a carload of Rebekahs to the district convention.

COLUMBIA SCHOOL GIVES PROGRAM TO BIG CROWD

175 Attend Meeting Held by all Classes Friday Night; Program Praised.

About 175 people attended the Columbia school program last Friday evening. The program is reported as being the best ever presented at Columbia. Much credit is due Miss Briggs, primary teacher, Mrs. Keller, intermediate teacher and Mr. Haddock, principal.

The program was as follows: Ghost song, Merrily we Roll Along (a take off) "A warning," by Rachel Buell. Piano duet by Jean Barnard and Fern Lindner.

Stunt, Rachel Buell and Helen Andrews. Boxing, Harold Buell and Bernard Andrews.

Song, Bye Bye Blackbird, Let the Bumble Bee Be, Billy Lindner. Tending the Baby, by Billy Lindner.

LOCAL MAN WINNER AT POTATO SHOW AT WESTON

Some advertising for the Hermiston country as a producer of potatoes both white and sweet, was done by A. D. Smith at the Weston Potato show last week when he had white spuds entered in competition and sweet potatoes on exhibit.

A. D. Smith, of Hermiston, one of the leading growers of sweet potatoes in the Pacific Northwest, has an interesting exhibit of Red Brazil sweets at the Umatilla County Potato show in Weston.

Dr. C. M. Dale is making a place for himself in the community of Durfur where he recently established established himself in the practice of dentistry, according to W. L. Doud, real estate man of Durfur who was here last week.

HERMISTON DEFEATS ECHO TENNIS PLAYERS FRIDAY

Tennis players of the Hermiston high school emerged victorious in a tennis match played here last Friday afternoon. The locals won all the sets, their only loss being one game in the boys' doubles.

Echo was represented by Joe Gertrude Bowman and Bernice Heft. The local players were Gerald McKenzie, Rodney Davis, Bessie Madden, Ruth Bensei, Mary Brownson and Irma Clark. Following is a record of the play and the players:

Boys' doubles: Echo, Middleton, Thomas, 6, 4, 4; Hermiston, McKenzie, Davis, 3, 6, 6. Boys' singles: Middleton and Davis, won by Davis, 6 to 1, 6 to 1.

The mixed doubles, Echo, Bowman and Thomas, and Hermiston, McKenzie and Bensei, was called off on account of darkness.

DISPLAY OF FARM CROPS GETS PUBLIC'S INTEREST

The agricultural display which has been arranged by Mr. Porter in the window of his office at First and Gladys avenue, which will be enlarged later, is attracting attention. It is the intention of Mr. Porter to make a display of the products of this part of the country and impress upon the passer-by and the curious the advantages of the locality.

Garden products are represented by onions, potatoes, white and sweet, egg plant, peppers, corn and squash. Grains are wheat, barley, oats and rye. Samples of grasses, broom corn, millet, and the leguminous products are on display, and generous space has been devoted to extracted honey and beeswax.

Volivas To Leave

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence J. Voliva, residents of the project for several years, will leave within a few days for their new home near Richland. Mr. Voliva will be in the truck business at Richland. He held a public sale today to dispose of his farming equipment.

200 PRESENT HERE FOR REBEKAH DISTRICT MEETING

20th Convention Draws From All Of Lodges in County And Lodge District

The 20th convention of the 19th district of Oregon Rebekahs was held in Hermiston last Saturday, October 29. This district comprises Umatilla county and Boardman, and nearly every lodge had a good representation. There were about 200 at the business meetings, held in the auditorium, and more than that number at the banquet served in the basement of the Methodist church by the members of the Ladies Aid.

The program which was made up of numbers given by the different lodges, was pronounced a most excellent one by those attending, and floral decorations at the auditorium called forth a great deal of praise. The following officers were elected at a meeting presided over by Mrs. Edna Beddow: Thirza A. Hansell, Freewater, chairman; Emma Geissler, Echo, vice-chairman; Isabella Kellough, Weston, secretary; and Stella Reeves of Stanfield, treasurer.

RAPIDS BODY KEEPS DANA AND TEAL AT HELM AGAIN

Present officers were named to succeed themselves for another year at the annual meeting of the Umatilla Rapids association at Pendleton last Thursday, October 27. They are Jarsal N. Dana, president, and Joseph N. Teal, chairman of the executive committee. Both men are from Portland.

Plans looking toward the presentation of the case for the proposed project in the senate hearing in January were made by the association, and a delegation was named to go to Washington to appear before the senate committee.

At the Sanitarium Mrs. Peter Norquist is in the Rowe sanitarium for treatment. Mr. Wicklander of Boardman, was also a patient at the sanitarium this week, having broken an arm in three places while cranking his car.

At the Hospital Mrs. Nirechl of Lexington is a patient at the Hermiston hospital, and Mrs. Fred Furrer left this week for her home after having been in the hospital for medical treatment.
