AT THE THEATRE

Commencing December 13 we are cutting down our shows to four nights per week. No shows on Monday, Tuesday or Friday nights. We will show on Wednesday, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday nights. Shows will start at 7:45, and the program will be run once through.

The publication of the Columbia News, circulated last week by the Columbia theatre, will not be continued, at least with my name used as its publisher. I was under the impression said edition would come to me in the form of a dodger, containing some ads and my program. Coming out in regular newspaper size makes the publication too much in appearance like competition to our local newspaper, the Hermiston Herald, which is NOT my desire.
