GENEVA PARLEY ADJOURNS

Preparatory Arms Conference to Meet Again in March.

Geneva, Switzerland.—The preparatory disarmament conference, which opened November 30, adjourned after soviet Russia had suffered a defeat in selection of the date for the next meeting. Russia wanted the commission to meet again January 10, but the commission put the date off until March 15.

Soviet Russia during the conference challenged the entire world to disarm. The Russian delegation offered to destroy her land, sea and air forces, provided other nations would do the same.

BRIEF GENERAL NEWS

Herbert S. Hadley, educator, former governor of Missouri and one time on the brink of a vice presidential nomination, died after a long illness in St. Louis.

Foreign securities floated in the American investment market for the first eleven months of this year totaled $1,494,000,000, or $175,000,000 more than for the entire year of 1926, the treasury announced.

Economic progress during 1927 has brought Americans to the highest material living standard this country, or any other country, has ever known, Secretary Hoover declared in his annual report to the president.

Premier Baldwin's recent statement that the Russian government has not yet given assurances of non-interference in British internal affairs was countered in a statement made in Geneva by M. Litvinoff declaring that a condition of mutual non-interference in internal affairs has been fully accepted by the soviet government.
