Tom Boylen, Pendleton lamb and sheep buyer, was a Hermiston visitor for a short time Monday.

J. A. Reeves is able to be up and around again after an illness that kept him at home for quite a while.

Mrs. E. P. Dodd and daughter Ruth were guests of relatives in Pendleton over the week end.

J. M. Biggs, J. W. Clark and Lafe Hammack left Tuesday morning on a trip into the Willowa valley.

Stated communication Queen Esther chapter O. E. S. next Tuesday evening. Social.

Earl Mitchell has gone to Portland where he will be for some time on business.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Norton, Mrs. H. T. Fraser, Mrs. W. L. Hamm and Mrs. C. S. McNaught were Pendleton visitors last Friday.

Clifford Jenkins, formerly of Portland, is making his home here with his brother, George H. Jenkins, and attending Hermiston high school.

"Big Parade," Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at Cozy Theatre, Umatilla, Jan. 24, 25, and 26. This is it. See ad.

Dr. F. V. Prime who has been in Portland undergoing special treatments for the benefit of his health is expected to return home Sunday.

The J. A. Birchfield family moved this week from their former location at the corner of Gladys avenue and Fourth street to the Doherty property on East Main street.

Mrs. J. H. DeMoss returned Tuesday morning from Dallas where she was called by the illness and death of her foster father. During her absence Mrs. W. G. Rodda had charge of the teaching at Minnehaha school.

Methodist church — The revival meeting continues at the Methodist church with good interest. Altar is crowded each night. Everybody is invited to the services. Come and be saved "now." S. Hamrick, pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Doherty of Port Townsend, Washington, were here the first part of the week as guests at the home of J. M. Biggs and Bert Haneline. They were also in Pendleton a part of the time.

Mrs. C. M. Jackson entertained the neighborhood club of which she is a member at her home last Saturday evening. Three tables were filled for cards.

Mrs. Boyd Jenkins and baby arrived this week from Hood River to join Dr. Jenkins. They recently leased the Mitchell place and will occupy it as their home. Mrs. Mitchell will be a guest at the Swayze home until she leaves Hermiston.

Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Sears and daughter Patricia left yesterday by motor for Salem, Albany and other Willamette valley points. Dr. Sears will return the first of the week, but Mrs. Sears will remain for a visit of about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Jenkins spent Wednesday in Pendleton where he was called for a conference with W. L. Teusch, assistant county agent of the state, County Agent Holt and County Agent Smith of Morrow county.

"We've had more long distance customers today than on any one day for a month," one of the men at the Farm Bureau Co-operative said Monday. "The roads have been slick and the weather just bad enough to keep some customers away until they had to get out for feed, and today seems to have been that day. We've had customers from Nolin and Pendleton, from Boardman and Irrigon and from away down south."

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Shesely have returned after a vacation trip that started before Christmas. They spent some time in Seattle, Hoquiam, Vancouver and Portland. Mr. Shesely returned home a week ago today and Mrs. Shesely came Tuesday morning. "It is quite an experience to drive through some of the drifts on the north bank road where the snow is many feet deep," Mr. Shesely said. He also had the experience of being stalled by slides on the Oregon part of the road.

Union services at the Baptist church Sunday, Jan. 23. Bible school 10 A. M. Lesson, Little Jesus and the Law, Mark 2:13-3:1-6. Morning worship 11 A. M. Theme, The all important and personal question. Young people meeting 6:30 P. M. Topic, What difference does it make what we do on Sunday? Mark 2:23-28; 3:1-6. Don't stay away because the church is not perfect; how lonesome you would feel in a perfect church. Help make the church interesting to the whole community. No evening preaching. A cordial welcome to all. A. J. Ware, pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Elliott returned Wednesday from Portland. Mr. Elliott states that the snow banks on each side of the lower highway are higher than the cars and it seems sure that a thaw will cause lots more grief for the highway commission in that section. Mr. and Mrs. Elliott will leave Saturday for Seaside on business.

Word has been received here that Mrs. Alfred Groom is convalescing nicely from an operation performed in Portland at Emanuel hospital and that Mrs. Groom and her mother, Mrs. F. L. Kelly, are expected to return to Hermiston the first of the coming month.

Good Equipment Makes a Good Farmer Better

Are you getting all your cream into your cream check? Regardless of what separator you are using, have your skim milk tested by your creamery man at least twice a year and definitely know if your separator is skimming clean.

The McCormick Deering Primrose Ball Bearing separators are paying for themselves many, many times over through clean skimming, long life and easy turning. In fact, the McCormick Deering Ball Bearing Primrose is not only a close skimmer, but makes play of a man's size job, for it requires 35 per cent less energy to turn than a plain bearing machine.

SOME SUPERIOR FEATURES OF THE PRIMROSE ARE:

1. Clean and efficient skimming.
2. Easy running.
3. Ball bearing.
4. Long life.
5. Positive, automatic and visible oiling.
6. No oil holes.
7. Improved heavy hardware.
8. Easy bowl adjustment.
9. Sanitary and easily washed.
10. Long time payment plan.

There are many other features too numerous to mention, but if you will stop in or call us, we will be glad to show you the Primrose or to demonstrate its actual merits on your farm.

Who are these Investors?

TEN years ago fifteen of the largest corporations in the United States had a total of approximately 500,000 stockholders. Today the American Telephone and Telegraph Company alone has more than 420,000 stockholders.

This is an instance of the amazing growth of saving and investment that has taken place in this country. Who are these new investors?

Telephone stockholders come from every rank and file in every state, nearly every town and city, in the land. Mechanics and merchants, teachers and bankers, laborers and lawyers—every station of life is represented in this investment democracy.

The Bell Telephone System, composed of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company and its Associated Companies, is owned by the people it serves.
