

MAKING THE MOST OF IT

We should all make the most of our TIME, our OPPORTUNITIES, our ADVANTAGES. That is real thrift.

The railroad succeeded the stage coach in order to save time. Today it is possible to cross the continent in less than two days, by airplane. More time saved. It is just as important to save money as it is to save time. In fact, saving time means saving money.

Philadelphia, Pa.—The greatest police shakeup in the history of American municipalities, so extensive that it will amount to the formation of nearly an entirely new force, is planned by Mayor Harry A. Mackery in an effort to rid the bureau of "grifters" as revealed by the grand jury investigating organized lawlessness and police corruption.

A "Queen" of Guernsey's provides the milk for Queen Marie's repast when Royalty visited at Pacific International Pictured above, Mrs. Minnie W. Miller of Thousand Springs Farm, Wendell, Idaho, is seen milking her famous Guernsey, Yeoman's Mixer Babette. Henry Thiele, prominent restaurateur, is standing by waiting to carry a pitcher of this "queen's" milk to Queen Marie of Roumania who was a visitor at the 1926 Pacific International Livestock Exposition.

Every indication points to all divisions being filled to capacity at the 18th Annual Pacific International Livestock Exposition, Portland, Oregon, November 3-10, inclusive. Particularly is this true of the Dairy Livestock division. Fully 800 dairy animals are expected to be in the stalls when the Exposition opens, with breeds represented as follows: Holsteins 300, Jerseys 200, Guernseys 150, Ayrshires and Brown Swiss 150. Professor V. D. Chappell of Oregon Agricultural College is in charge of the Dairy Products Show which, this year, will excel all previous records for size and quality of exhibits. In addition to the Dairy Livestock entries, millions of dollars worth of pure bred Beef Cattle, Horses,

Sheep, Hogs, Goats and Foxes will compete for a share in the $100,000.00 of prize money offered.

Pacific International is one of the four shows in the U. S. where the "All American" selections are made.

Other outstanding divisions of the Exposition are the Land and Manufacturers' Products Shows; Industrial Exposition; Sheep Show; Wool and Mohair Show; Fox Show; Boys' and Girls' Club Work Exhibits; great "Truth in Meats" demonstration, and America's greatest Horse Show. Ten Horse Show performances are scheduled—7 evenings and 3 afternoons. Stirring high and broad jumping events are announced for each performance. High stepping harness horses and three- and five-gaited American saddle horses will be seen in all their perfection of form. Heavy draft six-horse driving team contests are scheduled as well as other team contests throughout the rest of the week.

All transportation lines are offering reduced fares to the Exposition.

The Best In COMMERCIAL PRINTING At The Herald

Made Matters Worse

He had been receiving anonymous letters. Nasty ones. Though the handwriting was decidedly individual, detectives had not been able to trace the poison-penner.

He went to a fancy-dress ball recently. In asking for a dance from a fair damsel, he noticed on her program a signature with the exact handwriting of the anonymous writer. He waited. Soon a fellow dressed as a lion came along.

Things are now even more anonymous. All he knows further is that a fellow dressed as a lion socked him.—Exchange.

Physicians and Cookery

While our modern cook books are mostly written by women, this has not always been the case. During the Middle Ages it was customary for doctors to write cook books and most of the culinary volumes of these times came from the medical profession. Cookery was considered akin to healing. Doctor Lister, author of a fine cook book and physician to Queen Anne, wrote: "I do not consider myself as hazarding anything when I say that no man can be a good physician who has not a competent knowledge of cookery."—Kansas City Times.

Catching a Bird

Little Margaret was found playing in the back yard with her grandmother's best salt shaker. Margaret's mother asked what she was doing.

"I'm going to catch a bird," she replied.

"Surely you don't think you can sprinkle salt on a bird's tail and catch it?" the mother said.

"But Mr. B— told us kids that we could sprinkle salt on a bird's tail and catch it and he wouldn't tell a lie for no bird," Margaret insisted.

"Why, Margaret, that's impossible."

"Well, hasn't Aunt Carolyn a bird in a cage, and how did she get it?"

To Be, Not to Do

The besetting sin in America is to conjugate the verb to do every moment instead of to be. The incessant activity, regardless of what it is all about, leaves us empty. People do not enjoy their own society because it is not worth enjoying. They are not taught to have any resources within themselves. I think that the founding of the school of business administration at Harvard, for example, is one of the worst blows ever given to educational ideals in America.—James Truslow Adams in the Forum Magazine.

Movie Show Hero

Two women sat together in a motion picture theater, and one of them, who was reading the subtitles aloud to the other, was puzzled when one appeared containing the word "kibitzer." Stopping in perplexity, she said:

"Say, Dolly, what's 'kibitzer'?"
"I'm sure I don't know," Dolly replied.

The puzzled lady was still unsatisfied. Leaning forward, she asked a gentleman sitting in front:

"Pardon me, sir, but do you know what a 'kibitzer' is?"

"Yes, madam," replied the gentleman in front, politely, but firmly. A 'kibitzer' is a person who reads the subtitles aloud in a motion picture theater, to the extreme annoyance of others within hearing."
