

MINNEHAHA NEWS NOTES
Mrs. M. T. Matott, Correspondent

Mr. E. L. Jackson's hobby is his flock of sheep. He now has a band of eighty ewes and ninety-one lambs and when he sheared recently the ewes averaged twelve pounds of wool per head.

A family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Douglas in honor of Mr. Douglas' birthday, May 18. Those attending the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Douglas of Athena, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Lieuallen and small daughter Christine of Adams, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Luedtke and infant daughter, Lola Turner, Ruby Ward and a grandson Donald Jones, all of Portland. All of the immediate family except two sons, Dr. Fleenor Douglas and Mr. Len Douglas, both of California, were here to help Mr. Douglas celebrate this, his seventy-second birthday.

Mrs. Nela Hamer who has been visiting at the home of her daughter Mrs. R. E. McFalls, the past week, left for her home in Salem last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Jackson returned from Portland May 15 where they had gone to be with their son Loren, who underwent an operation in that city recently. Friends will be pleased to learn that he is improving favorably.

Miss Georgia Thom went to Pendleton Saturday to spend a few days with her sister, Mrs. McNurlen.

After asking us to buy limburger cheese for the thousandth time, we asked Mr. Sims of the Hermiston market, how he sold it. He said, "I've often wondered about that myself."

Miss Velma Colpitts visited at the home of her brother, T. R. Colpitts, in Stanfield May 15. Mr. and Mrs. Colpitts are jubilant over the arrival of a baby daughter born at the Hermiston hospital May 19.

W. D. Rodda made a business trip to Pendleton Saturday.

Harvey DeMoss, who is a student at the Monmouth Normal has been very active in student affairs there and received favorable mention in the school paper over his part in a recent stunt day program. He recently completed his turn as school cafeteria manager, a special course. He was chairman of the junior archery team which won over the senior team and as an officer of the Christian Endeavor, he prizes highly letters and telegrams received in answer to that organization's vote request on the Kellogg Peace Pact. These answers came direct to him from Senators McNary and Steiwer.

Charles McKenzie was successful in securing a large shearing contract in Washington between Wallula and Walla Walla, which is about finished now.

R. E. McFalls received baby chicks recently. He is in hopes some of them will emulate the goose of golden egg fame. The price of eggs this season indicates he will not be entirely disappointed.

Ralph Sturgess, who has been doing road work near Athena came home the latter part of last week and Mrs. Sturgess returned to Athena with him. They expect to be away for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Harris are visiting at the home of Mr. Harris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Harris. Mr. Harris, an electrician, is going on to Longview where he expects to locate and after a short visit here, Mrs. Harris and Miss Leah will join him there.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES
"Mortals and Immortals" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 19. The Golden Text was, "Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth" (II Tim. 2:15). Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality" (I Cor. 15:53). The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures", by Mary Baker Eddy: "It is only by acknowledging the supremacy of Spirit, which annuls the claims of matter, that mortals can lay off mortality and find the indissoluble spiritual link which establishes man forever in the divine likeness, inseparable from his creator" (p. 491).

At Cecil Warner Home.
Kenneth Warner of Lexington is a guest this week at the Cecil Warner home. He is a nephew of Mr. Warner.

To Fossil.
Mr. and Mrs. George Newell and children, Carmen and Junior, spent the week end visiting friends in Fossil.
