Robert Fulton Might Have Saved Napoleon

Although the trip of Fulton's Clermont from New York to Albany in 1807 marked the beginning of the first regular steamboat service, it was not, as many believe, the first practical demonstration of the steamboat. The American inventor propelled an earlier boat on the river Seine in Paris four years earlier.

No good American can look upon the Seine without thinking of that August 9, 1803, when its banks were black with spectators watching the young American dreamer making the first trip ever made in a steamboat. For four hours the strange craft puffed and belched along the stream. And so Paris and the world became acquainted with Robert Fulton.

Napoleon had said of Paul Jones that if he had lived France would have had an admiral. But had he only been able to give closer consideration to two propositions which Fulton put before him—that of transporting troops by steam across the British channel, accompanied by submarine torpedo boats, which he had already brought to a state of considerable efficiency—there might have been no St. Helena.—Richard Le Gallienne in Harper's Magazine.

OREGON STATE NEWS OF GENERAL INTEREST

Principal Events of the Week Assembled for Information of Our Readers.

Diamond lake was opened for the season recently.

Immediate relief from traffic congestion in the streets of Tillamook is getting to be a serious problem.

A general movement of sheep in Umatilla county from winter ranges to the higher summer ranges is now under way.

Plans are being made at Hood River to celebrate on the Fourth of July the completion of the city's new $250,000 water system.

For the first time in the past 10 years, Tillamook county has no warrant indebtedness, according to the county treasurer.

Snow is melting rapidly at Crater Lake. It is now about 3 1/2 feet deep, and automobiles can be driven within 13 miles of the lake.

The largest class in the history of Pacific university was graduated June 3. There were 41 graduates, as compared with 24 last year.

A private game farm is to be established on the old Barneburg place, three miles east of Medford, especially for the raising of waterfowl.

Municipal improvements in Klamath Falls this year — not including general maintenance work—will reach $780,000, according to the city engineer.

William Allen, Salem canneryman, predicts that the Oregon prune crop will reach 30,000 tons this year, in contrast with almost a total failure in 1928.

The sowing of 3000 acres of beans in the Athena district has been completed. An equal number of acres is being planted in the Weston neighborhood.

Albert Groshong recently killed a black bear near Willhoit, in Clackamas county. It weighed 300 pounds, and for some time had been killing sheep and goats.

Pea growers of the Brownsmead district, Clatsop county, have approved a plan to market this year's crop through a pool. The crop is estimated at 70 tons.

Wasco county Pomona grange has adopted a resolution to the effect that county budget committees should be appointed by the circuit court instead of the county court.

The Deschutes county court has decided not to cooperate with the city of Bend in the construction of a sheep bridge across the river, on account of lack of legal authority.

With the new addition to the Farmers' grain elevator, Athena can now boast of the largest elevator in the state outside of Portland. It now has a capacity of 290,000 bushels.

The University of Oregon library ordered during 1928 magazines to the number of 2173. Of these, 1009 were paid for, the others being obtained through gifts and exchanges.

The Mosier Valley bank, organized in 1909, has ceased business, its deposits having been taken over by the First National bank of Hood River. The bank was solvent and well managed.

Reports of tourist agencies, railroads and hotel reservations indicate that the coming season at Crater Lake, which will open July 1, will be the greatest in the history of the park.

More than 1000 purebred rams have been shipped to California this season from the Link & Wilson ranch, west of Sheridan. They will supply sheep growers of California, New Mexico and Arizona.

Forty seniors of the McLoughlin union high school at Milton received diplomas at graduation exercises recently. C. A. Howard, state superintendent, delivered the commencement address.

Arrangements have been made for the installation of the Jackson county agricultural exhibit in the headquarters of the Oregon State Chamber of Commerce recently opened at Los Angeles.

A district meeting of federal farm loan associations will be held in Eugene June 14 according to announcement by W. A. Ayres, secretary of the First National Farm Loan association of Lane county.

Henry Lake of Thornton Corners is winner this year in the contest for first home-grown strawberries of the season at Cottage Grove. The berries were of the Etterburg variety and were grown without any unusual attention or protection.

"Roarin' Days in the Nehalem" will be the official slogan for the big stampede to be held in Vernonia July 3 and 4. G. W. Ford, general chairman of the stampede, announces that more bleachers will be built to the ball park to accommodate a large crowd.

Hot Dogs for a Dog Race Winner

"Hot dogs! That we won!" So woofs Jack, lead dog of the winning team in the famous American Dog derby run at Ashton, Idaho, when his owner, Fred Printz, rewarded him with a few yards of the elongated tid-bits for winning the classic. Mr. Printz' prizes were the cups in the foreground.

Bibles in Common Use

The Bible chiefly used in Protestant churches is the King James Bible, so called because the translation was made at his instance between the years 1604 and 1611. The Catholic Bible in English is the Douay Version or Douay Bible, so called because it was translated in France and its Old Testament first published in the town of Douay or Dounal, in 1609. Both have undergone a number of revisions.

Famous Violin Maker

Antonio Stradivarius was born at Cremona in 1644. He is recognized as the greatest violin maker. His first instruments were made between 1670 and 1685. About 1685 he began developing his own original type, later used so much as a model by other violin makers. His best original work is said to have been accomplished between 1690 and 1737. He died in 1737 at Cremona.

It costs very little to recondition a
MODEL T FORD

THE Ford Motor Company is making a new car, but it is still proud of the Model T. It wants every owner of one of these cars to run it as long as possible at a minimum of trouble and expense.

Because of this policy and because of the investment that millions of motorists have in Model T cars, the Ford Motor Company will continue to supply parts as long as they are needed by Ford owners.

So that you may get the greatest use from your Model T, we suggest that you take it to the nearest Ford dealer and have him estimate on the cost of any replacement parts that may be necessary.

You will find this the economical thing to do because a small expenditure now will help to prevent costlier repairs later on, increase the value of the car, and give you thousands of miles of additional service.

For a labor charge of only $2.60 you can have your generator put in first-class condition. A new universal joint will be installed for a labor cost of $3. Overhauling the carburetor costs $1.50; steering gear, $3.50; radiator, $7.50. A complete overhauling of the rear axle assembly runs between $5.75 and $7 for labor. An average price of $22.50 covers the overhauling of the motor and transmission.

These prices are for labor only because the need and number of new parts depend on the condition of each car. The cost of these parts is low, however, because of the Ford policy of manufacturing and selling at a small margin of profit.

"Pagan Rites" Banned in English Cemetery

England has not yet complete religious freedom. Proof was given by a court in London which restrained a young woman from visiting the burial vault of her mother in Puginion cemetery. She appealed to the court after the cemetery officials stopped her on the ground that she was making sacrificial offerings of fruit and flowers and was burning candles in "pagan rites."

The judge upheld the cemetery authorities, saying: "The idea of this woman that she had a private place to which she might resort for acts of piety was a mistaken one. The woman must not delude herself with the idea she was following the practices of the early Christians only. The Assyrians and Indians did the same, as well as many pagan tribes, but these practices are not suitable to the present era."—Exchange.
