ADDITIONAL LOCALS

To Portland.
George Wagner of the Hermiston Transfer company made a trip to Portland over the week end with the household goods of Earl Boynton who recently moved to the western Oregon city, from Hermiston. Mr. Wagner started from here Sunday morning and returned Monday evening.

Visiting at Pierce Home.
Loel Wilson of Portland is visiting at the Otto Pierce home this week. He is a nephew of Mrs. Pierce.

Return From Trip.
Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Bielman and family returned the first of the week from a visit with relatives in Centralia and Bucoda, Washington.

To Marshfield.
Charles Jenkins, local restaurant proprietor, returned recently from a trip to Marshfield where he was called by the death of his sister, with his sister.

Here From Boise.
Mr. and Mrs. Heith Rogers, of Boise, Idaho, were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Pierce over the week end. Mr. Rogers is a cousin of Mrs. Pierce.

To Walla Walla.
Mr. and Mrs. George Newell and children, Carmen and Junior, spent the Fourth in Walla Walla where a celebration was held under the auspices of the American Legion of that city.

From Pendleton.
Mr. and Mrs. R. Alexander and Mrs. Henry W. Collins and daughter Catherine, of Pendleton, were in Hermiston Friday en route to Seaside.

On Executive Council.
In the list of Legion Auxiliary officers given last week the name of Mrs. Wm. Shaar was omitted by mistake from the elective members on the executive council. Mrs. Shaar with Mrs. J. M. Biggs and Mrs. H. E. Shesely are the three newly elected members to the council.

On Vacation Trip.
Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Hills of Hermiston are spending the week on a vacation trip through Union and Walla-owa counties. They intend to return home via the John Day highway. Mr. Hills is an entomologist from the state college at Corvallis and has been stationed here for the past month.

Minnehaha can usually depend on someone to uphold her honor when there are stakes to be won. In the races at Stanfield the Fourth Velma Colpitts won the race for girls under sixty, and Grace Rodda won the one for girls over twelve.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Douglas went to Portland for the Fourth and to visit relatives living there. They report the roads simply jammed with crowds leaving the city for the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sturges were here for a short stay after bringing their daughters, Evalyn and Elaine, back from Rainier national forest where they visited for a week with relatives. Mr. Sturges was transferred to another camp up at Meyers Lake, Wash., near the Canadian line, and they left here July 7 for that place. They are both employed by the Joclyn Macalister road company.

Notice is hereby given that I have taken up and have kept for about 21 days at the L. H. Pearson ranch, 7 miles east of Hermiston the following described animals:

One Polstein bull between four and five months old.

Said animal will be sold, unless redeemed, at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in hand on the 7th day of July, 1929, at the above described ranch at 9 o'clock A. M.

Mr. Wm. Hicklund, whose home is in Tillamook, famous for dairy cows and cheese, was giving out information last week on how to tell whether your Jerseys and Holsteins were thoroughbreds or not. He says to take a dime and put it in the bottom of the milk pail and if you see it after milking your Jersey, she is not thoroughbred, and likewise, if you can't see it after filling the pail from your Holstein cow, she isn't thoroughbred, either.
