

QUEEN KATHLEEN I TO RULE ROUND UP

Pendleton, Ore., Aug. 29—It will be "Queen Kathleen" at the Round-Up this year, for Miss Kathleen McClintock has been chosen to wield the scepter over the cowboy realm September 18, 19, 20 and 21.

Queen Kathleen in private life is Miss Kathleen McClintock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. McClintock and next year will be a junior at Oregon State college, where she is a member of Sigma Kappa sorority. She is an accomplished horse-woman and will ride in all of the Round-Up parades. Besides her popularity with the grown-ups, Queen Kathleen is beloved by little children and during the past summer assisted in the work at the public playgrounds in Pendleton.

In type, she is a real blonde, with blue eyes and golden hair. Permanent waves and marcel don't trouble Queen Kathleen for the royal tresses have a natural curl.

Her first official appearance of the 1929 season will be on the evening of Saturday, August 31, at "Happy Canyon," when a big community dance will be the climax for Pendleton's Round-Up Dress-Up parade. The parade marks the opening of the Round-Up season and the donning of real western togs, which will be worn by the men of Pendleton until after the close of the show. Heading the parade will be H. W. Collins, president of the Round-Up and the presidents of various civic organizations of Pendleton.

Valuable Loss

Mrs. Woolley excitedly entered her lawyer's office. "Have you filed my application for a divorce yet?" she asked.

"No, madam," replied the lawyer; "but I am at work on the papers now." "Thank goodness, I am not too late. Destroy all papers and evidence at once, please."

"A reconciliation has been brought about between you and your husband, I infer?" "Gracious, no! He was run over and killed by an auto this morning and I want to retain you in my suit for damages against the wealthy owner of the car."
