

EXHIBIT AT PROJECT

ATTRACTS ADMIRERS

Owner Explains About the Types of Singers Shown To Public.

(BY ARMISTEAD CARTER)

One of the main attractions at the fair was undoubtedly the bird show. A crowd of interested admirers thronged this exhibit continuously. Many of the visitors informed the writer that they had come from Pendleton purposely to see the bird show. A foreign bird exhibit shown by Professor Hubbard of Forest Grove and A. Carter included some rare specimens. Among them were the following:

One pair each of African orange-check waxbills, Cuban finches, Zebra finches from Australia, Abyssinian love birds, blue wing love birds, Westers love birds, and Madagascar birds. In addition to these, some white canaries were shown and a large array of undulated parakeets in various colors.

I have judged many bird shows in England where the foreign bird display did not begin to come up to this, the first bird show in Oregon. Unfortunately, the local women were afraid to bring out their pets and let people see what they had.

The three specimens that were put up for competition were examples of good care. The bird shown by Miss Dyer was awarded first for excellence, but the margin between it and the winner of the second prize, a bird owned by Mrs. Marble, was very little. A nice bird was exhibited by Mrs. Matott. It showed good care but was not quite through the moult.

The light was so poor that the birds were not encouraged to sing. Mrs. Marble's bird sang most and was awarded first prize. Mrs. Matott's bird sang but once, but annexed second prize with its efforts. As the rest, including my own birds, did not sing, no second prize was awarded.

I hope we shall have a much larger turnout of local birds at our next show.

MARRIED 44 YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. U. Edwards celebrated their forty-fourth wedding anniversary last Sunday at their home in the Columbia district. Eight children and grandchildren were present at the event and furnished the dinner. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hallyburton, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Baty, Mrs. Arthur Blinston, Miss Irma Baty, Maxine Blinston and Genevieve Blinston.

CHURCH NOTES

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, Oct. 13.

The Golden Text was, "In the way of righteousness is life; and in the pathway thereof there is no death" (Proverbs 12:28).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "The Lord is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his works" (Ps. 145: 17).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures", by Mary Baker Eddy: "Everything good or worthy, God made. Whatever is valueless or baneful, He did not make,—hence its unreality. . . Sin, sickness, and death must be deemed as devoid of reality as they are of good, God" (p. 625).

Methodist Episcopal Church
To the many friends of the Methodist church, as pastor of the church I wish to announce that there will be regular services at the church next Sunday morning. Our new arrangement this year with the Echo church makes it necessary to alternate services, and it is hoped that you will keep well informed as to the hour of the services on the alternating Sundays.

The schedule for the next two Sundays is: October 20, 11 o'clock preaching in Hermiston, 7:30 preaching in Echo. October 27, 11 o'clock preaching in Echo, evening preaching in Hermiston. Having given up my work in Kingsley's store, I am able to give my whole time to my circuit and am subject to your call day or night. Let us demonstrate the brand of Christianity the world is looking for, the kind that has not only the word Christ in it but the very spirit of the great Nazarene.

The Epworth League hour has been changed from 7 o'clock to 6:30. Every young person will find this service interesting as well as instructive. An entirely new program has been adopted, including round-table discussion, mission study, and Bible study. Everyone is cordially invited to attend, Oscar Payne, Pastor.

Baptist-Christian Church

Special Notice. Sunday, October 20, at the Baptist-Christian church is rally and promotion day for the Sunday school. There will be a basket dinner in the church basement. The theme for the morning worship at 11 o'clock will be, "Why a Revival?" At 2:30 will be community singing. Some friends of the church from Helix and the Reverend and Mrs. Guy Drill of Pendleton are expected to be present.

Christian Endeavor will be at 6:30 with the evangelistic services at 7:30. The Reverend and Mrs. Drill will be in charge.

Make your plans to attend these meetings. They will help you. What we want and what you want is to put your community on the highest possible plane. There is danger ahead when a man throws his tongue into high seas before he has set his brain going. The public is invited to the meetings. A. J. Ware, pastor.

Seventh Day Adventist Church.

The program for Sabbath, October 19, is: "Sabbath school 10:00; preaching 11:00; Young People's meeting, 3:00. The theme for the Sabbath service will be from Revelations, Chapter 13, "Woman clothed with the sun and moon at her feet." At the mid-week prayer service, Tuesday evening, the regular series of Bible doctrines will be considered. The meeting place is the Corlis hotel building. The public is cordially invited. Dewey Payne, pastor.

Baptist Church

The Hermiston Baptist church will hold its regular services next Sunday in the I. O. O. F. hall at 11 o'clock. The pastor will preach on the subject of the atonement. Everyone is welcome to attend. The services last Sunday were a success and it is hoped they will be better this Sunday. J. T. Dowell, pastor.

Proud Owner Shows Champion

"You'll Do's Grey Creampot of W. M.", Junior Champion Jersey Cow and its owner Mrs. Edna L. Knight.

Mrs. Edna L. Knight, Willowmeadow Jersey Farm, Willows, California, one of the few women breeders of livestock—and successful, too—will exhibit her prize-winning Jerseys at the 19th Annual Pacific International Livestock Exposition, Portland, Oregon, Oct. 26-Nov. 2, inclusive.

This year, for the first time, the American Jersey Cattle Club has selected Pacific International to be one of the four sectional shows in the United States. This makes available awards for All-American honor: in the Jersey division of the West's greatest livestock classic. The Club has also added $1,000.00 to the Exposition's prize money, bringing the total premiums offered for Jerseys alone up to $2,500.00. Total prize money for all classes aggregates $100,000.00.

New features announced for this year's Exposition are the 2000-coop display of the Oregon Poultry and Pet Stock Show; Junior Agricultural activities in the new J. C. Penney Hall; and the Oregon Fish and Game Commission's Exhibit of Wild Life (including a Fish Hatchery in full operation). Altogether, the 1929 program will offer greater variety than ever before—12 complete shows—Pure Bred Live stock Show; Fat Stock Show; Dairy, Manufacturer's and Land Products Shows; Sheep Show; American National Fox Show; National Wool Show; Industrial Exposition; Boys' and Girls' Club Work Exhibits; Northwest Hay and Grain Show; and world-renowned Horse Show, including among other spectacular events the Six-Horse Team Driving contests during each of the seven evening programs.

Special reduced fares to the Exposition will be in effect on all leading transportation lines in this territory.
