AT THE THEATRE

Saturday and Sunday "Sunset Pass"

Jack Holt, Nora Lane and John Loder are three of the leading stars in this Zane Grey film to be shown November 30 and December 1. Jack Holt this time takes the part of a U. S. marshall who voluntarily serves an Arizona penitentiary term to get clues on the activities of a cattle rustling gang. Having secured the clues, he goes out to find the cattle rustlers.

Nora Lane takes the part of the sister of the man Jack is after, and the two fall in love. Jack rescues Nora from a fire that has been started by her brother as a part of the rustling program. Jack also takes part in a thrilling fight.

The setting of this play is typically western and Jack Holt is himself an ex-stage driver.
