OREGON STATE NEWS OF GENERAL INTEREST

Principal Events of the Week Assembled for Information of Our Readers.

Mrs. Sophia Charman, pioneer of Oregon City, recently reached her 94th birthday anniversary.

More than 500 delegates attended the young people's institute of the Oregon Congregational church in Salem recently.

A blase which swept the dry timber land on the Siskiyou, nine miles south of Ashland, destroyed the historic Dollarhide Tollgate property.

The third annual potato, corn and onion show sponsored by the Sherwood chamber of commerce was held recently, with a large showing of commercial and seed potato exhibits.

Plans which it is hoped will bring the United States department of agriculture walnut experiment station to Yamhill county were formulated at a meeting of county nut growers.

Clackamas county's budget for 1930 shows a decrease of $16,199 from the 1928-budget. The 1930 budget calls for a total expenditure of $885,005.18, as compared with $904,204.20 in 1929.

The state land department turned over to the state treasurer during November a total of $154,442.47, according to a report prepared by G. G. Brown, clerk of the state land board.

Three persons were seriously injured, one of them probably fatally, at Bend, when dynamite being tied into bundles preparatory to blasting operations exploded in a worker's hands.

As a necessary piece of apparatus for the fire department the St. Helena city council has purchased a lung-motor and the three paid members of the department have been instructed in using it.

Nearly 100 grangers representing Boulevard, Big Bend, Oregon Slope, Harper-Westfall and Vale farming sections, were in Vale recently for the "turkey" meeting of Malheur County Pomona grange.

Hundreds of cattle in the Redmond district are being driven from Brothers to Bear creek for water, as the water at Brothers is dried up. No such drought has struck this part of the county in 20 years.
