Friday night Pilot Rock came to meet our basketball teams on the Umatilla floor. Both games were exceedingly good. The U. H. S. girls kept far ahead until the last quarter when Pilot Rock began to play and climbed right up. The last minute of the game Pilot Rock made a basket which tied the game. The tie was not played off. The score stood 29 for both teams.

The boys game was equally exciting though very rough. The U. H. S. boys won 19 to 18.

Saturday night both Umatilla teams went to Arlington for the final game of the season. The U. H. S. girls again held the highest score throughout the game. The score at the half was 10 to 1. At the end of the game the score was 16 to 7. The boys had had luck with their game. Though they played hard, Arlington played a little harder and the U. H. S. boys lost 2 to 16.
