EDITORIAL

It is well said that Adam and Eve were the pioneers in the housing business but they were smart enough to own their own home. Styles then were pretty scant—Adam dressed in leaves of absence. Styles in homes have changed some since then, but a house isn't a home if it's rented.

The teacher was giving the primary class a talk on flowers. "Now children," she said, "who can tell me what makes the little flowers spring from the seed?" "God does it," answered one little girl, "but fertilizer helps."

Garden furniture is easily and cheaply constructed. Attractive fences, seats, summer houses, and arbors are a few of the types. Look over our detail plans for these additions to your summer comfort.

HELPFUL HINTS

At the side of the door drive in a good strong nail and sharpen the protruding end. When the landlord calls for the rent, greet him with a smile and carefully back him against the nail. When he leaves there will be a rent in his pants that should satisfy him.

Concerning Himself." The stupendous claims made by the Son of man concerning himself in the Four Gospels are ever before us for our acceptance. We are not saved by the teaching of Jesus nor by the earthly life of our ord, nor by trying to follow Him as our great example. He claimed to be the Son of God and his life and power substantiate the claim. He further claimed He would "give his life a ransom for many" and history as well as scripture proves that he did. The sole and only ground of our salvation is in the death of Jesus and His shed blood. We trust many may find this great fact to his soul's salvation.

The message for the eleven o'clock hour will be on "The Promise Made Sure to the Faithful," a continuation of the fourth chapter of Romans.
Young Peoples' society meets at 6:30 P. M.
"Quickened From the Dead by God" is the theme of the evening message.

Prayer meeting and evangelism study at 7:30 on Thursday night. The general topic will be "Dealing with Those Who Have Difficulties."
Wm. H. Donner.

Hermiston S. D. A. Church Notes

At ten o'clock Sabbath morning, March 1, in the Adventists meeting room in the old Corlies hotel building, classes from the senior to the kindergarten divisions, will convene for the purpose of finding some great spiritual lesson from the word of the Lord. Jesus, our Savior, said "Search the Scriptures," so we invite you to come and search them with us. At 11 o'clock Elder Fred Guderian, the young people's secretary of the Upper Columbia conferences, will speak. A very interesting and helpful lesson will be given for both old and young. The Missionary volunteer society will meet at 3 o'clock of the same day. The home and school society will meet the evening of March 2 and a very helpful discussion is promised. You are welcome and invited to any and all of the meetings. Dewey Payne, pastor.

Methodist Church.

Sunday school bids you welcome at 10 o'clock. No morning worship. Evening services at 6:30 with Epworth League and preaching services following at 7:30. On March 7 at Arlington M. E. church the best program this district has been privileged to have for years will be put on. The greatest negro orator in America and one of America's greatest tenor singers will be there. All free. Better plan to go. O. W. Payne, pastor.
