MAN WHO STOLE MILLION IS FREE

R. J. Thomson, Liberated From Prison, Will Start Over Again.

Austin, Minn.—Ransome J. (Cy) Thomson, the farmer boy who came to the city and "made good," is out of prison.

Cy served eight and one-half years for embezzling $1,187,000 from one of the largest packing plants in southern Minnesota. Good behavior cut short a 15-year sentence and now Cy is starting over again.

Leaving the farm where life was a drag Cy got a job in the George A. Hornel company packing plant. He worked a while there and then went to business college to study bookkeeping. Returning he went to George A. Hornel, the president, and said: "I am back to make good and I want a job."

Started at $12 a Week. He got that job and started out at $12 a week. To boost his weekly income he sold candy among the 2,200 employees of the plant. Posing personality and ability to work soon sent Cy climbing to the position of controller of the packing company, holding the confidence of every one of the officials.

He needed $5 once and so took the company's money and then, despite his ability as a bookkeeper, he was unable to put the money back in the company without attracting the attention of the officials, so he took more. Within about eight years he drew more than a million, all the time completely covering his operations with a system of checkwriting. He would draw on a bank in Birmingham, and to cover that check would draw on a St. Paul, and to cover that would draw on Chicago, and so on. He always had a flock of checks in transit so auditors just couldn't check properly—they just took Cy's word that the money was in transit, feeling that it was not improbable. And Cy was a trusted employee.

Began to Splurge. Before long Cy started to splurge. He had been left a 20-acre farm at Le Roy, Minn., not far from Austin, and he started to develop this into a chicken ranch. He added other farms. He spent money like a trooper. Five thousand dollars to him was like five cents to a street urchin. In spending Cy found pleasure. In being a good fellow he found friends and Cy became Austin's outstanding Babbitt.

Even after Cy confessed to the embezzlement of more than a million dollars he lost few friends. Somehow to them it just didn't seem possible that Cy was a thief. And, too, there was that element of taking money from a capitalist.

Cy believed in efficiency on the farms he was developing. They had to be modern in every respect. And to be modern cost money. Cy spent $10,000 for one rooster to lead the flock of Oakdale farms. On another dairy farm he had electric fans to keep the cows cool. Vacuum cleaners kept them clean. A powerful fan that drove flies into a corridor at the end of which was a screen door to lock them up, saved the cows a lot of energy. After the flies were penned up, they were given a good dose of insecticide.

Club Rooms for "Hands." For hired hands on his farms he had elaborate clubrooms. One featured a music room, library and billiard room. The bedroom linens were the best to be bought.

On the Oakdale farms at Le Roy Cy even built a $10,000 children's park. On the ranch a special fire department was kept on duty. Cy even had a special "chicken physician and surgeon" to care for the ailing members of the flock which numbered 20,000.

In Austin Cy built apartment houses and bought up business properties. His diversified interests made it necessary to maintain an office downtown in which more than a dozen girls were employed.

Once he needed a hotel to care for the many visitors coming to see his chicken ranch. "Build one," he ordered his manager. In a short time the hotel was completed and opened. This speed mania for doing things brought Thomson the name of "Cyclone" which friends shortened to Cy.

Down on the ranch Cy built an expensive dance hall. To make it outstanding he brought in some decorators from the Hippodrome in New York and they finished it up.

Rents Farm for Parking. Another time Cy staged a mammoth celebration to show off his farm. Newspapers and magazines sent special writers for the event. And where only a crowd of 10,000 had been expected 60,000 showed up. So great was the mob that in order to care for the cars that came Cy told one of his assistants to rent 40 acres of land adjoining the farm and turn it into a parking space. This he did. The 40 acres were packed with cars.

All this time Cy was taking money and he got careless and, according to the story told now, once forgot to cover the check "in transit." A banker got suspicious, so did the company and auditors were called. Telegrams over the country disclosed a real embezzlement, but the officials couldn't tell how much Cy had gotten. When Cy was confronted with the facts he said nothing, but walked across the room, wrote a few figures on a piece of paper, folded the paper and gave it to the officials. The paper bore this figure: "$1,187,000." It later turned out to be the exact amount Cy had embezzled.

While Cy was in jail some of his faithful friends brought a band up to Austin and he was serenaded. Then Cy went to the state prison and started a 15-year sentence. From the start friends were preparing plans to get his parole. They were rewarded for their efforts after eight and one-half years.

Cy is out now on a farm "somewhere" in Minnesota resting before he enters into business life.

In the meantime there is considerable speculation as to what became of about $400,000 that apparently never was traced. Some sort of feel that Cy hid it away and some even say he may have hidden it away on the farm.

CHURCH NOTES

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Adam and Fallen Man" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 11.

The Golden Text was, "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works" (II Tim. 3:16, 17).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: . . . So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; . . . And God saw everything that he had made, and, behold, it was very good" (Gen. 1:26, 27, 31).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures", by Mary Baker Eddy: "Through discernment of the spiritual opposite of materiality, even the way through Christ, Truth, man will reopen with the key of divine Science the gates of Paradise which human beliefs have closed, and will find himself unfallen, upright, pure, and free" (p. 171).

Life in London

According to an English paper, when a landlord asked for possession of a room at Drayton Park, Highbury, he told the magistrate that the room measured 12 feet by 18 feet. It was occupied by a husband and wife and eight children.

Tea-Leaf Salad

There is a virgin tea called Lung-Soo, meaning dragon's whiskers, which the Chinese use in making tea and the leaves of which they eat as a salad.
