EDITORIAL

The big difference between present and Biblical times is that a grain surplus was then regarded as a blessing.

R. A. Brownson, Editor.

Why did the salt shaker? Because he saw the potato masher in the kitchen, the sugar spoon with her, and the gas meter in the cellar.

Now if that was a modern concrete cellar like we could remodel your old one into, it would be a fine place to meet anyone in. There is probably room for an extra room in your basement if you will let us show you.

The other day a fellow evidently mistook us for a radio store because he came in and asked for "B" eliminators. We didn't have any but our fly screens eliminate flies so he ordered a set for his home.

W. W. Felthouse is painting his warehouse this week.

"I just did a hole in one," said her proud husband.

"Did you?" the wife answered the wife sweetly. "Please do it again dear—I didn't see you."

The reason so many people like the miniature golf is that it fits their drive.

Hello, people of Hermiston. I just came in town to help the Tum-A-Lum. But in the rush to get here I forgot my name. If any kind person that has a good name for me will call phone 331, and tell it to Mr. Brownson, it would sure be appreciated.
