UMATILLA ITEMS

Orders were received from Portland August 3 to lay off the day hostler, day asphalt man, boiler maker helper and machinist helper. This took effect Friday. A. G. Poord, day hostler has bumped Bob Ford night hostler, Leslie Thompson, night asphalt man is now working on the rip track, James Cole, boilermaker helper, is not working and Bill Hanson bumped Jim Galanous, day asphalt man, which puts him out of a job. This leaves only 4 men employed in the roundhouse and three stationery firemen.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Miller are now living on the Rev. W. O. Miller ranch west of town. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Weatherall have rented the parsonage.

Johnny and Timmie Schrieber, formerly of Umatilla but now of Seattle, are visiting at the McKenzie home.

Mildred Conlon and Betty McKenzie returned last week from Seabold, Washington, where they spent a month at girl's camp.

Mrs. Harriet Ford who has been teaching near Portland, is staying for some time at the home of her brother, Glen Blakely.

Phyllis and Georgie Long from Tunc are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Jarvis.

Mrs. Jessie Blakely who lived in Umatilla several years ago, is back working at Murphy's restaurant. She is staying with Mrs. Blakely, her mother-in-law. H. C. Bramer is slowly improving from injuries received about three months ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Van Schoick and family motored to Portland last week where they are visiting Mrs. Van Schoick's sister, Mrs. Clinton Harvey and family, formerly of Umatilla.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bishop of Walla Walla spent Thursday visiting friends in Umatilla.

Because of low water most of the swimmers have been going to the ferry landing instead of the regular beach.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Nugent motored to Pendleton Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowen of Hermiston visited at the D. M. Walsh home Sunday. Mrs. Bowen and Mrs. Walsh are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hull returned from Spokane Sunday where they were called because of Mr. Hull's mother's sickness. They left her very much improved.

H. E. Crisman was called to Portland Sunday because of his daughter's, Mrs. Esther Fisher, illness.
