High Price for Hogs.

Stories about Hermiston hogs topping the Portland market have become so numerous as to attract little attention, but last week an unusual thing happened at the Portland yards. The first lot of hogs offered for sale on the market were those from Hermiston which sold for $11.50. Within thirty minutes after the sale the price dropped to $11.00 and remained at that figure for the day.

124 VOTERS REGISTERED

One hundred and twenty-four names were registered by J. S. West during the registration period closing October 4. A large number were registered on the closing day. Mr. West has not made a check of the poll books, so is unable to determine how many of the voters are new ones in the Hermiston districts. Interest in the governorship and power measures on the ballot are one of the reasons given for the large registration.

EDITORIAL

October 5 to 12 is to be celebrated all over the U. S. as PROSPERITY WEEK. Never in the last 10 years have prices of staple commodities been so low. There never was a better time to buy what you will need. The so called business depression is mostly in our minds. Plan on doing your repairing and building this month. Get optimistic—Let's Go. R. A. Brownson, Editor.

Uria Lenhart has been building two good cook houses for the baling crew. These houses are on trucks.

One thing the Prophet Job never had to do was take a clinker out of a furnace with a straight poker.

According to one bright boy in our public schools, a volcano is a mountain with a hole in the top. If you look in the hole you can see the creator knocking.

"The White Race Cannot Survive Without Dairy Products."

HERBERT HOOVER said: "The basis of child welfare is health and physical development, the foundation of child health lies in proper feeding. In its broad aspects, the proper feeding of children revolves around a public recognition of the interdependence of the human animal upon his cattle. The white race cannot survive without dairy products."

—In an address before the Associated Charities, San Francisco.

PUBLIC HEALTH AND COMMUNITY PROSPERITY DEPEND UPON AN ADEQUATE DAIRY INDUSTRY. THE DAIRY INDUSTRY IS ONE OF UMATILLA COUNTY'S GREATEST RESOURCES.
