HERMISTON GRID TEAM DEFEATED BY HEPNER

Local Squad Makes Touchdown in Last Quarter By a Pass.

Hermiston high school's grid team met a 19 to 7 defeat in the fourth game of the season for the locals when they played the Heppner football team on the home field Friday, October 17.

Hermiston's touchdown came in the last minute of play of the last quarter when Glen Hammond passed the ball to Enos Martin who carried the ball over Heppner's line after which they kicked goal, bringing the score up to 7. Most of Heppner's yardage was made by straight line bucks and deceptive plays, but the Hermiston eleven fought hard to stop the attack of the Heppner players.

The line-up consisted of Ed Throop, Tom Stewart, Victor Addleman, Fred Reeves, Oscar Whitsett, Donald Jackson, Bob Cox, Enos Martin, James Neary, Dick Martin and Glenn Hammond.

MR. AND MRS. J. M. BIGGS RETURN FROM TRIP TO BOSTON

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Biggs returned from Boston, Massachusetts, to their home in this city Wednesday afternoon after attending the National American Legion Convention which was held in the above mentioned city October 6, 7, 8 and 9.

On their return trip two weeks was spent in visiting historic points of interest in the New England states and also in Washington, D. C. They returned the Canadian route and while there visited places of interest in the provinces of Canada.

"Mayor Curley of Boston, in a public statement to the press assailed the truth of the so-called riots which occurred following the gigantic parade of the American Legion's National Convention," declared Mr. Biggs, Oregon State Commander of the Legion, on his arrival home. "The mayor was bitter in his denunciation and declared the trouble—what little there was—was caused by 'sons of slackers who never wore a uniform' and he took exception to the editorial comments in the Harvard Crimson, as well as other unfounded press stories."

Phil Metchan, Republican candidate for governor, will discuss issues of the campaign at the apple how in Frazer Saturday evening. He will spend the day in Umatilla county and is scheduled for a day time street address in Pendleton.

DADE'S DAY AT U. OF O. TO BE ON OCTOBER 25

With friendly competition between the various living organizations growing keener every day as to which one will have the largest number of Oregon Dads here for the Dad's Day festivities on October 25, and acceptances from Dads pouring in from all over Oregon and many points in California, the University of Oregon is looking forward to the greatest annual day in the history of the dad's association. More than 600 are expected to attend.

Among those from Hermiston who have been invited to attend Dad's Day are George P. Sale, William J. Warner and F. C. Woughter.

DONOVAN-MUELLER

Of interest to people of Hermiston is the news of the marriage of Miss Rose Donovan and Mr. N. R. Mueller which took place at the bride's parents home in Hope, Idaho, October 19. Mr. and Mrs. Mueller are both well known in Hermiston as the bride was a teacher in the local schools several years and the groom has spent the past few summers in Hermiston looking after the artemesia plant.

They expect to be in Hermiston next week after which they will leave for the east, where they will spend the winter.

FARM BUREAU AUXILIARY HOLDS MEETING

Board of Directors Hold Meeting Wednesday Evening, Herbert Beyers Present.

Over 8000 turkeys are now signed up in this territory to be marketed through the Eastern Oregon Turkey Growers' Association, a cooperative marketing association with members from the Hermiston, Boardman and Stanfield communities.

Herbert Beyers, who has been appointed assistant manager of the Northwest Turkey Growers' Association, met with the temporary board of director of the local organization Wednesday evening to discuss the outlook of the marketing situation for this year. Mr. Beyers is on his way to Salt Lake City to assume his duties with the regional organization.

According to Mr. Beyers, the Northwest Association, controlling about 80 per cent of the turkeys in the United States, will be in shape to function for this year's marketing. The local association, through a tie-up with the Roseburg organization, who is in turn affiliated with the Regional Association, will receive the benefits of the large organization in their marketing problems.

The Northwest Turkey Growers' Association will act in the capacity of sales agency and will handle the selling end for its various pool members and will develop market contacts to aid in disposing of the birds.

Mr. Beyers has shown exceptional ability in his capacity as sales manager for the Roseburg organization and Oregon is very fortunate to have such a representative acting in the capacity of assistant general manager in the regional organization.

Funeral services for Thomas H. Grigg, 69, who died at his home east of town October 20, were held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Frann Funeral Chapel with Rev. O. W. Payne, of the local Methodist church, officiating. Interment was in the Hermiston cemetery.

Mr. Grigg is well known in this community as he has resided on his farm here for several years. He was born in New Brunswick, Canada, where he lived until a young man then moving to Ohio, after which he came to reside east of town. He had been in ill health for several months and is survived by his wife, Mrs. T. H. Grigg; two daughters, Mrs. J. K. Gabriell of Stanfield and Mrs. Harold Vance of Sunyside, Washington; and one son, Earl, who is in the east.

Telephone booths in the Bell System are used a billion times a year.

LEGION & AUXILIARY PLAN FOR BIG TIME HALLOWEEN

Parade to March Through Main Street. Prizes Offered for Best Costumes.

The American Legion and Legion Auxiliary are carrying plans and arrangements forward rapidly for the big "Newellah" which will be held Halloween night, October 31, for the high school and grade children.

Plans are now that everyone participating in the festivities will meet at the high school building at 7 o'clock when a parade will be formed with the Legion and Auxiliary members leading it. The children will be lined up according to consecutive grades starting from the first, and will march down Main street and then to the Hermiston Auditorium where the judging of costumes will take place and the prizes will be awarded. Individual prizes will be given for the most attractive costume and also the funniest in each room, and a prize will be given to the room having the largest number of pupils present, so it is urged that each school child be present whether in costume or not. The judging of costumes will be followed with Halloween games in the Legion hall for the grade children and dancing in the Auditorium for the older group. Refreshments will be served during the evening. The whole show is free so everyone start working on a costume and plan to get in on the party Halloween night.

The Umatilla high school are working hard on a play "The Whole Town's Talking" which will be presented November 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Grammer have gone to Washington where they will make their home near Olympia.

Douglas Fairbanks Jr. and Loretta Young are the lovers in an entirely unique celluloid romance. Louise Fazenda, Ethel Wales, Otis Harlan, Daphne Pollard, Inez Courtney and others make up the cast of comedians who fill "Loose Ankles" with every variety of laugh from giggles to guffaws.

"Show of Shows" opens Sunday at the Oasis Theatre in Hermiston for a two day run. It is the advent of a new event in pictures. "Show of Shows" is a drama, melodrama and tragedy. It is a comedy, travesty and opera. Shakespeare to Jazz.

It has, by actual count, 77 stars. It has, by actual count, 1000 Hollywood beauties. All of them tinted by Technicolor—and none of them tainted by time. It is 100 shows in one, and any one of the 100 is worth the price of admission. There never was anything like it before and there never will be anything like it again. Don't forget, it runs October 26 and 27.

A turkey grading school will be held in Portland on the 29th and 30th of this month which is the first of a series of grading schools given all over the Pacific Northwest by the United States Department of Agriculture, for the purpose of instructing any one interested in grading turkeys. At the end of the two day course examinations are held and licenses are issued to those who are qualified to grade turkeys. Holding this school in Portland offers an excellent opportunity to those wishing to learn this work.

The Eastern Oregon Turkey Growers Association will hold a meeting in the library in Hermiston Friday, October 24, at 8 o'clock. Those interested in turkeys are urged to attend this meeting as important matters will be brought up for discussion in regard to selling season turkeys. Not only the growers are asked to be present but anyone interested in this phase of work or anyone having suggestions as to the selling of the birds, are urged to be on hand Friday evening.

OFFICERS FOR COMING YEAR WERE ELECTED

Committee Appointed to Investigate Plans for Remodeling Club House.

At a meeting of the Farm Bureau Auxiliary held Friday, October 17 in the club rooms, the following officers were elected and installed for the coming year:

Mrs. Howard Reid, president; Mrs. A. E. Marble, vice-president; Mrs. F. Guylis, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. C. A. Keller, assistant secretary; Mrs. Mikesell, Mrs. Madden, executive committee members. Mrs. Jackson Harr, press agent.

A vote of thanks to Mrs. Cecil Mad den was given by the ladies present for the efficient and able service given the Auxiliary for the past three years. Also a vote of thanks was given to Mrs. J. J. Jendrzejewski for the arrangement of the Columbiad booth which won second place at the Umatilla Project Fair. A committee was appointed to investigate plans and get estimates on remodeling the club house.

The social hour with Mrs. Marble, Mrs. Keller, Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Smith as hostesses, was unique in that the women wore witch caps while they were entertained with stunts and games. Mrs. Marble gave a short talk on health stressing the importance of using milk in the diet. Mrs. Keller read some useful health suggestions on the use of vegetables in the daily ration. Pumpkin pie and whip cream and coffee were served at the close of the meeting.

The next regular meeting will be held November 7 with cooking as the subject. Mrs. Henry Hooper, Mrs. Alvin Hooker, Mrs. Hurst and Mrs. Addleman will act as hostesses.
