THE CENTER RING

During the past several months candidates for public offices have had their innings, with the center ring being occupied with the governor aspirants. Recalling the events as they occurred, the citizens of Oregon have had splendid opportunity to familiarize themselves with the declared policies of each candidate. You should know whether the power trusts are the best, or public owned utilities should replace them. This question cannot be decided by a Governor, no matter who is elected. Two of the candidates for Governor are trying to convince the voters of Oregon that they should be elected, and are doing so with a limited amount of capital expended. Either one would serve Oregon to the best of his ability and make for Oregon a good Governor. The other candidate for this office promises a business administration, but these promises are being bought and paid for by unlimited amounts of money spent in printed literature and otherwise. This publication does not hesitate in making the statement that if Oregon wishes to purchase a Governor outright, that there is plenty of capable men in the state that could fill the chair, and really appreciate the salary attached thereto. Getting back to the center ring—November 4 there will be a ring master step into the show, and with silence, settle the political battle, clear the ring of mud and give the people's choice a chance to fulfill his promises. And may the citizens of Oregon be spared the post mortem.

Any time that you feel blue, discouraged, just take a trip over the United States and see what the troubles and worries that confront the people of the east and middle states. You will receive that "grand and glorious feeling" when you arrive back in Oregon, and especially, of course, on the Umatilla project.

Among the industries that suffered a decrease during the past year is the famous Reno divorce mill. Only 2070 couples were unhitched in the Nevada city—a decrease of $1. Reno is now suffering from foreign competition, notably that of Mexico and Switzerland. Maybe there ought to be a tariff or something.

Your duty November 4 is to vote; state, county and city officials will be elected—a number of special bills appear on the ballot. Give each one your consideration, vote to your best judgment, but vote. It is your privilege.

Nothing is quite so bad as a "sugar papa" dying with a case of financial diabetes.

Dr. C. F. Redlich says:
The "Perfect Retention Shields" hold the rupture perfectly, no matter what position the body assumes or how heavy a weight you lift. They give instant relief and contract the opening in a remarkably short time. The secret of their success is in their simplicity. An expertly adjusted device seals the opening without discomfort or detention from work. It is practically everlasting, sanitary, comfortable and actually holds ruptures which heretofore were considered uncontrollable.
