

NEEDS FOR RED CROSS SERVICE ON INCREASE, SAYS CHAIRMAN PAYNE

Disaster Relief and Service to War Veterans Make Heavy Demands—First Aid on Highways New Plan.

Demands upon the public services that the American Red Cross is organized to give are increasingly heavy, and will continue to be so in the future, John Barton Payne, chairman, has announced.

The two major services of the society—service to war veterans and their dependents, and relief in disasters—show each year a greater number of persons helped by the Red Cross.

Pension legislation passed recently for World War Veterans, and increased allotments to all Spanish-American War Veterans, have given to Chapters and the national society many thousands of additional cases to handle, Judge Payne said.

In the past year help was given in 108 disasters. Ninety of these were in the United States, twelve in foreign possessions and six were in foreign countries.

Health activities of the Red Cross also are being extended, especially in the rural communities, where all health authorities agree the greatest need exists. Red Cross, with 794 nurses in its employ, is the greatest employer of public health nurses in rural areas in the United States.

In its campaign against accidental deaths, begun twenty years ago with its life saving and first aid programs, the Red Cross now has adopted an additional program—that of combating the huge toll of life from automobile accidents on the highways.

Expenditures of the Red Cross in the past year were $4,254,796.34, of which $1,208,151.09 was spent in disaster relief, the chairman pointed out.

"The Red Cross depends upon the public for its support, through their memberships enrolled once each year in the period from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving Day," Judge Payne said.

"We do not receive any support from the Government, or through other taxation, although as the President of the United States is president of the society, and one-third of its governing members are representatives of U. S. Departments, it ranks as a semi-governmental agency.

"By joining as a member, in the local Red Cross Chapter, once each year, during the annual Roll Call, every citizen will have a part in carrying on this great humanitarian task."

Motor Injuries Treated By Red Cross First Aid

In line with its work for the preservation of life and prevention of accidental death, the American Red Cross has adopted a new program of emergency first aid stations on the highways of the nation, where victims of automobile injuries will be helped.

In the last year 31,000 persons were killed as the result of automobile accidents and more than 1,000,000 were injured. As its contribution to the nation wide safety campaigns of other organizations, the Red Cross will aid through the emergency stations. A number already are in operation by Chapters on such important traffic arteries as the Westchester County, N. Y., park system, the Valley Forge and Gettysburg highways in Pennsylvania and the White Horse Pike in New Jersey, connecting with Atlantic City.

Saving Mothers and Babies Is Important Red Cross Task

Saving mothers' lives and better babies were important features during the past year of the Public Health Nursing Service of the American Red Cross. About four-fifths of the 794 nurses in the Red Cross work made more than 100,000 prenatal and maternal visits, in addition to assisting doctors in the examination of 1,309,409 school children.

Statistics reveal that the lives of two out of three American women who die in maternity cases could be saved if they received proper medical and nursing care. As more than 15,000 women die in the United States each year from various diseases of the maternal state, this means that more than 10,000 of these deaths are preventable.

Comfort Kits Sent 40,000 Service Men by Red Cross

Gay patterned cretonne bags, or comfort kits, containing articles useful and amusing, are sent by the Red Cross to 40,000 soldiers, sailors and Marines, on foreign service, as Christmas remembrances.

The little gift bags are donated and packed by women in Red Cross Chapters all over the country. They are despatched by Army transport in the early autumn in order to reach the foreign ports and posts of the U. S. services in time to be hung on the Christmas trees.

Gifts from home is the outgrowth of a plan adopted by the Red Cross prior to the World War when so many National Guard regiments were on the Mexican border.

LET'S STAND BACK OF EASTERN OREGON'S NATIVE SON PHIL METSCHAN Republican Candidate for Governor

For years the people of Eastern Oregon have wanted a Governor who is familiar with their problems, who appreciates their needs and is acquainted with their desires.

Phil Metschan was born and raised in Eastern Oregon. The eastern half of this state never had a more loyal friend than this man, who knows Oregon better than any other man now before the people.

Agriculture, irrigation and stock-growing are major industries in Eastern Oregon. The city-born man who never lived on a farm, never had to milk cows on cold frosty mornings, toil long hours in the field, has no conception of the problems of Eastern Oregon. Eastern Oregon needs a friend at Salem. Phil Metschan is that friend. In him Eastern Oregon will have a Governor to whom it can go with the assurance that the people east of the mountains will get a square deal.

Eastern Oregon should throw its whole-hearted support behind its native son, for if he is defeated it will never again be able to convince the people of Western Oregon that its demands for a square deal at Salem are sincere.

The independent candidate for Governor is attempting to blind the people of Eastern Oregon to the value of Phil Metschan by raising the cry of cheap power without cost to the taxpayers. That cry was raised for the purpose of misleading the public, because the independent candidate for Governor cannot make good its promise. Ask any banker.

Eastern Oregon is not interested in a local quarrel in Portland. They are interested in their own problems. Conditions in Portland have nothing to do with the conditions of irrigation, agriculture and stock-growing in Eastern Ore.

Cheap power in Portland and in other sections of the state can only be obtained through aid of the federal government, and the aid of the federal government in developing power resources will never be procured by electing an independent candidate, whose only object is to destroy the Republican party.

Phil Metschan is a Republican. He knows more about the affairs of government than any other candidate now running for Governor. He can work quietly and efficiently with a Republican legislature at Salem for those things in which Eastern Oregon is interested.

Election of an independent candidate will lead to endless quarreling at Salem and will halt Oregon's progress.

Eastern Oregon is on trial before the rest of the state. Defeat of Phil Metschan, its native son, would be the greatest blow that could be struck at our future.
