FRIDAY & SATURDAY

Now for the long awaited thrill in talking pictures. Here it is, John Barrymore, the great lover of the stage and screen, America's foremost actor speaking for the first time from the screen. You'll experience the thrill of a lifetime as he portrays the romantic, daring leader of men—the impetuous lover—the gypsy-blooded, devil-may-care warrior who fought for love or gold and demanded his payments in kind.

Vitaphone Act.

SUNDAY, MONDAY

Patricia Caron and Robert Armstrong in the thrilling Pathé picture "Oh Yeah!"

Mingling smiles with thrills, each character portrayed by a thorough screen artist. "Oh Yeah!" is one hundred per cent entertainment and then some—you'll enjoy it from start to finish.

EDITORIAL

Many a true statement is spoken through false teeth.

R. A. Brownson, Editor.

The truest word of tongue or pen is fill that coal bin up again. Use Tum-A-Lum to chase away the winter chill, less ashes to carry out and a smaller fuel bill.

We wish the fellows that soaped our windows would come back and finish the job so we could wash the windows without having to add more soap.
