EDITORIAL

Pretty soon the farmers will yearn to escape from farm relief and get back to good old fashioned depressions. But with Congress going to meet again, we can lay the blame onto them.

R. A. Brownson, Editor.

This would be a fine time to do that repair and remodel work around your home. It will give work to those that need work, make your home better, increase your peace of mind, and the prices are lower than at any other time in fifteen years.

"And now, gentlemen, cried the orator, 'I want to tax your memories.' 'Oh, Lord,' came a voice from the audience, 'has it come to this?'"

CHRISTMAS SHOPPERS

Built-in fixture, make a wonderful gift. Cupboards, ironing boards, medicine cabinets, and many others can be delivered for Xmas if they are ordered now. Most of these can be attached to the wall by the Man of the House in three or four minutes.

George Bancroft is remodeling his house on Seventh street, adding some windows and glass doors, making a very comfortable house. Tom Lenhart is going to move into this house when it is complete.

Cold? Burn Coal—It gives that satisfying heat in a hurry.

The Farm Bureau has started the addition to their mill. This will be concrete construction and will give them a lot more room for their business.

"The best advertising is the wagging tongue of a satisfied customer." Whether it was Socrates or Confucius that stated the above, we don't know, but as we 'Like to help folks build' and as most of the fine homes in Hermiston were planned and materialized by Tum-A-Lum, it is gratifying to hear so many nice things said about us.
