SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE

Miss Dorothy Isom returned home Saturday from Monument, Oregon, where she has been visiting relatives for the past three weeks. She was accompanied by Miss Clara Hednall, who was enroute to her home at Hermiston.

Mrs. Carl Alquist has been quite ill with a severe cold the past week. Mr. and Mrs. George Haskell were here from Plymouth, Wn., Saturday night.

Mr. Day from Pendleton had charge of the Sunday evening services at the Community church.

The Sunday school congregation have been busy practicing for a program to be presented during the Christmas holidays.

Frank Markham and son Laurence were business callers in Hermiston Wednesday.

George Rand and son Batie are the proud owners of a fine purebred Shorthorn bull calf purchased recently from the Northwood Farms at Redmond, Washington. The calf is a direct descendant from Millicent, the $3000 import bull. The Rands have been breeding Shorthorns since 1929 and now have a very good milking strain.

The dance given by the Grange Saturday night was well attended by surrounding communities.

Batie Rand made a trip to Nola Wednesday after a load of sheep he purchased recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Buleuder and Mrs. James Warner were in Heppner on business Monday.

The Western Union telegraph crew who have been stationed here for some time placing new poles along the line, are moving to Umatilla this week.

Frank Moody, who has been employed on the Carroll ranch all summer, is now with Frank Brace for the winter months. Irrigon and Umatilla basketball teams met for a game at the gym at Irrigon Wednesday evening. The score was 30 to 24 in favor of Irrigon. The band entertained the crowd at intermissions with some excellent selections.

Friday night Irrigon high school boys and girls played the Umatilla teams at their hall. Both games were won by Umatilla.

Mrs. Bert Dexter spent Friday visiting in the home of Mrs. W. C. Isom.

Earl Collins, little son of Mrs. Amy Collins, had the misfortune to fall from one of the play apparatuses and break a rib.

Mrs. Tagerstrom is quite ill with an attack of the mumps.

Mr. and Mr. Ven Jones attended the game at Umatilla Friday night.
