

Local Happenings

Mrs. J. W. Ball was a visitor in Pendleton Sunday.

Mr. Elspa, zone field man of the Ford Motor Co., was a visitor in town Saturday.

Charles Baker has been confined to his bed this week due to the after effects of the flu.

Miss Ina Lenhart, Miss Mildred Cummins and John Copace were in Pendleton Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Burrell Watenburger and small son of near the Pine City schools were in town Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Bled Chisholm and family of the Westland district were business visitors in town Tuesday.

Mrs. Lee Meade of Boardman is receiving medical attention at the Hermiston Medical hospital this week.

The cooked food sale sponsored by the Parent-Teachers Saturday brought in $17.25 to their treasurer. They wish to thank those who supported the sale.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Jones this week are Mr. Jones' brother Harold and his friend Row Parish of Newberg. They came Saturday and plan to remain until the last of the week.

Raymond Crowder and Bill Ortmann, publishers of the Arlington Bulletin, were visiting in Hermiston Friday. They called at the Herald office while here.

Mrs. Louise Oswald who has been visiting her sister Mrs. A. W. Christopherson for the past two weeks plans to return to her home in Portland Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McDonald, recent bride and groom, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Prime from Thursday until Saturday of last week.

Mrs. John Glascock and her nephew Harlan Glascock left Sunday morning for Yakima, Wn., where they will attend a meeting of sheep growers. Mrs. Glascock has been visiting with her sister Mrs. H. L. Propst since before Christmas and her nephew joined her here from Mt. Vernon, Oregon.

F. B. Swayze is serving on the grand jury in Pendleton this week.

W. B. Henkle of the Federal Land Bank of Portland was a business visitor in Hermiston Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Boynton, accompanied by Mrs. W. S. Boynton, were visitors in Walla Walla Friday.

E. P. Dodd of Walla Walla was looking after business interests in Hermiston the first of the week.

Lorraine Bracher and Laura Ragin of Pilot Rock and Margaret Neary were week end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Best.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Felthouse went to Walla Walla Saturday where they visited their son Billy who is attending Whitman college there.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Clark were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Turnblad.

Among those going to Pendleton Saturday night were Miss Clara Gehmert, Miss Emma Thoeny, E. M. Houser and Mr. and Mrs. George Story.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Tucker were visitors in town Thursday. They recently moved here from Pendleton and reside on the W. W. Willard place in Columbia district.

Herbert Haneline, who has been visiting with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Haneline, left Monday morning for Klamath Falls where he is employed for the J. W. Copeland Lumber Co.

Mr. and Mrs. George Story entertained a number of young people at a dinner party Sunday. Among those present were the Misses Clara Gehmert, Margaret Neary, Emma Thoeny, and E. M. Houser. Out of town guests were Pete Penny of Pendleton and Glen Staggs of Milton.

Miss Nan Cranna was a week end guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. V. Prime. She is a sister of the former Miss Catherine Cranna and teaches music in the Lincoln school in Pendleton.

Mrs. C. C. Deuriffy returned from Portland Monday night where she has been for several days looking after business interests. Her son Jarvis looked after her affairs here while he was away.

Mrs. Edward Gould and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Gould of Seattle, Wn., are visiting this week with Mrs. C. V. Paul. They are brother and sister to Mrs. Paul, and plan to be here for some time.

Mrs. J. S. Burnham attended a hour given in Stanfield Tuesday by Mrs. M. E. Larager and Mrs. Charles Hoggert in honor of Mrs. M. Leven at the home of Mrs. Hoggert. A luncheon was served at 1:00 o'clock to the following guests: Mrs. Robert Starkweather, Mrs. Ernest Greathouse, Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. J. H. Gibson, Mrs. Elva Berry, Mrs. G. W. Wallace, Mrs. J. S. Burnham, Mrs. Thomas O'Grady and the honor guest.

Ronald Rege, manager of the Oasis theatre, has been giving lectures in the Umatilla, Stanfield, Echo and Irrigon schools regarding the picture on the Bird expedition, which is to be shown here Friday and Saturday of this week. The matinee Friday starts at 4:30 and on Saturday at 2:30 to which adults are invited as well as the school children. Teachers are urging pupils to attend this showing due to the educational value derived therefrom.

Bill Lindner, who lives northwest of Hermiston, has been doing considerable land leveling the past fall and winter preparatory to spring seeding.

Several real estate deals have been reported during the past month, several of which were said to have been cash deals. Last week R. W. Armstrong, of Sidney, Nebraska, is reported to have purchased what is known as the Lloyd ranch in Columbia district, owned by J. H. Reid. The place consists of 20 acres, a majority of which is in alfalfa. The house on the place was burned some years ago and Mr. Armstrong is reported to be arranging the purchase of a house which will be moved onto the place. He is said to be planning several improvements.

M. M. Smith is doing some leveling of land on his ranch preparatory to seeding alfalfa in the spring.

Squire Thomas, who farms in the northeast section of the project, is busy this fall and winter preparing a considerable acreage of land which he contemplates seeding in the spring.

Mrs. Folsom and son of Baker, Oregon, who recently came into possession of the Jack Walker 20 acre tract are making improvements on the place. Sage brush is being grubbed out on a portion preparatory to the planting of an acreage of early potatoes in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. James Armstrong who purchased what is known as the Banks ranch some time ago, have about completed remodeling of the house and expect shortly to make their home there. A new kitchen has been built, ceilings raised and the interior worked over. They now reside on their ranch adjoining the Banks place. A new barn has been built and 600 feet of pipeline has been completed to bring irrigation water to the place. Further building improvements are contemplated following their moving to their new home.

During the meeting each lady made a quilt block. At the close of the social hour delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Dr. Dan Poling of O. S. C. conducted a meeting in the Stanfield high school Thursday evening, Jan. 15. After a short address by Dr. Poling the evening was spent in community singing and folk games. These meetings are arranged by County Agent Holt.

Another Old Time grange dance will be given in the grange hall Friday night.

A tramp of Racine, Wis., who insisted that a housewife allow him the use of her bathtub so that he could clean up, was arrested and got his bath in jail.

COLUMBIA NEWS NOTES

Several real estate deals have been reported during the past month, several of which were said to have been cash deals. Last week R. W. Armstrong, of Sidney, Nebraska, is reported to have purchased what is known as the Lloyd ranch in Columbia district, owned by J. H. Reid. The place consists of 20 acres, a majority of which is in alfalfa. The house on the place was burned some years ago and Mr. Armstrong is reported to be arranging the purchase of a house which will be moved onto the place. He is said to be planning several improvements.

M. M. Smith is doing some leveling of land on his ranch preparatory to seeding alfalfa in the spring.

Squire Thomas, who farms in the northeast section of the project, is busy this fall and winter preparing a considerable acreage of land which he contemplates seeding in the spring.

Mrs. Folsom and son of Baker, Oregon, who recently came into possession of the Jack Walker 20 acre

STANFIELD NEWS ITEMS

Stanfield Grange met in regular session Monday evening with about 60 members present. During the lecture hour, "Goose Money" a one act play was presented. The cast consisted of Mrs. T. S. Green, J. M. Richards, R. G. Penney, Mrs. Ed Brown, Dale Stott, Mrs. Fred Thorne, Mrs. R. G. Penney, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Power. The remainder of the evening was spent playing musical games and community singing. Mrs. T. B. Stuart entertained the Bridge club at her home Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Richards, Wm. Hoggeman and Jennie Hoggeman were dinner guests at the Roy Penney home Sunday evening.

The Ladies Aid will meet in the church parlors with Mrs. J. F. Reuber as hostess.

Work is progressing satisfactorily on the new grange hall. More volunteer labor will be greatly appreciated.

The Home Economics club met at the home of Mrs. R. G. Attebury Tuesday afternoon with 15 members present. During the business session the club voted to send the Grange lecturer to Corvallis to attend the lecture school in February. The literary program consisted of a study of O. S. C. radio program, "How Can You Teach Desirable Habits." The club voted to continue the study of these Homemakers' club programs as outlined by the O. S. C. extension service.

During the meeting each lady made a quilt block. At the close of the social hour delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Dr. Dan Poling of O. S. C. conducted a meeting in the Stanfield high school Thursday evening, Jan. 15. After a short address by Dr. Poling the evening was spent in community singing and folk games. These meetings are arranged by County Agent Holt.

Another Old Time grange dance will be given in the grange hall Friday night.

A tramp of Racine, Wis., who insisted that a housewife allow him the use of her bathtub so that he could clean up, was arrested and got his bath in jail.

Weather Report

Considerable rain fell here Wednesday night and a report that several inches of snow fell in the mountains.

Date	Max.	Min.
January 15	43	27
January 16	43	28
January 17	40	28
January 18	36	31
January 19	35	30
January 20	34	30
January 21	36	31

Precipitation was .2.

Short Course Includes Homemakers

Several sessions of particular interest to homemakers are to be included this year in the short course in household equipment at Oregon State college, formerly devoted almost entirely to women in the commercial equipment field, according to Miss Edith Carse, instructor in household administration. A full program has been planned for the course, beginning Thursday, January 29, and ending Saturday, January 31.

Because he had not spoken to her for five months, Nelle Kotelez of Yonkers, N. Y., killed her husband with a potato knife.

Johnny Wilkins, 5, of Detroit amused himself at a community picnic by puncturing 40 automobile tires with an old hat pin.

Breeding Turkeys

Cockeram's Grant Bronze Turkeys, bred for size, color, vigor, chunky type; 16 years experience in breeding on our 1000 acre farm; choice breeding toms, 24 to 30 pounds, $8 - $10 - $12. Show birds higher. Gentle, range raised. At Northwestern Turkey Show of over 300 turkeys. Best in the West; won grand championship last two years and other highest honors. Also champion market dressed hen and champion market dressed tom.

—SALEM FAIR WINNERS—
Birds Guaranteed to Please or Money Back.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Cockeram
Oakland, Oregon

Oasis Theatre

THE BEST IN TALKING PICTURES
Hermiston, Oregon

Special announcement of two matinees on Byrd at the South Pole. One Friday, January 30, starting at 4:30 p. m. evening show at 7:00 p. m. Saturday Matinee at 2:30 p. m., January 31. School children: grades 15c, high school 30c; adults 35c. Tickets for students to be bought from school. Evening show prices 25c and 50c.

The Irrigon Band will give a concert with our regular program of "The Sea Wolf" February 6

PROGRAM
THURSDAY AND SATURDAY
JANUARY 22-24

John McCormack
in SONG OF MY HEART

Fox Movietone Talking and Singing Romance

Also Entertaining Short Features
SUNDAY AND MONDAY
JANUARY 25-26

DOLLY DOVE
SWEETHEARTS and WIVES

ENDORSED!

Because of the dramatic power of its story... Because of excellence of its acting... Because of the thrilling beauty of its star we endorse this picture as one of the finest mystery-dramas of the year!

Also Comedy and Fox Movietone News

COMING —
"BYRD AT THE SOUTH POLE"
"MAN FROM BLANKLEYS"
"SEA WOLF" with
"IRRIGON BAND CONCERT"

Hot Lunches :: Quick Service
Sweets and Refreshing Drinks
SPORTING GOODS

HITT'S CONFECTIONERY
Hermiston, Oregon—Phone 100

TUM-A-LUM TICKLER
Published in the interests of the people of Hermiston and vicinity by Tum-A-Lum Lumber Co. — Phone 331.

Vol. 31 Hermiston, Or., Thursday, January 22, 1931 No. 3

Editorial	at a little down and the rest like rent.	We're still dizzy from the drop in building materials. Our loss is your gain. Repair and build now when labor and material are the lowest.
A dog chasing his tail is no more foolish than the man who spends all he earns.	"I am ashamed to show you my kitchen."	Foreman: "How is it that although you and Jim started digging at the same time he has a bigger pile of dirt than you?"
Did you ever stop to think how mad it must make a policeman to be hit somewhere else when he is wearing a bullet-proof vest?	It will be, "I want you to see my kitchen."	Sample: "Why, boss, he's diggin' a bigger hole."
R. A. Brownson.	—0—	—0—
There are more ways than one to skin a cat. Says the old Philosopher, and there are more ways than one to save money. For instance, a Building and Loan Co. is willing to help you build a home	It is only a little while until hatching time for chicks. Are you prepared with brooder houses, insulated with Fir-Tex. Many places on the farm can be improved with insulation.	"Dorothy is getting a man's wages now." "Yes, I heard she was married."

COMPLETE YOUR BREAKFAST

EAT TOASTED WHEAT BREAD

The breakfast of healthy folks is incomplete without crisp, delicious, wholesome toast—plain or buttered or served with marmalade or jam. Everyone likes it—children and grown-ups—and toast likes YOU, for it's digestible and healthful.

HERMISTON BAKERY

BREAD IS BEST

Educate your grocer by asking for HERMISTON BAKERY Bread—We supply fresh bread daily. No community was ever built with dollars sent away from home.

Specials-Saturday, Jan. 24

- BEEF STEAK, 5 lbs. $1.00
- SHOULDER PORK ROAST, lb. 18c
- HEAVY BACON, 1-2 or Whole, lb. 25c
- 8 lb. Pail LARD $1.35

A full line of fresh and cured meats to select from.
"THE HOME OF QUALITY MEATS"

Hermiston Meat Market
A. W. TURNBLAD — PHONE 411

SOAP SPECIAL THIS WEEK

BALOONS GIVEN WITH EVERY SOAP SALE

FAIRSEX — A dandy Franch Milled Toilet Soap, with every one at 10c we sell you one at 1c—P & G is going up but we still sell you —

- 10 PARS FOR 39c (It is simply a better soap)
- SARDINES—Oval tins, 3 for 27c
- SALMON—No. 1 tall tin, 3 for 31c
- GRAPE FRUIT—Dixie Dainty Fancy Florida New Pack at 10c

Our Spring wash frocks are new arriving — The Spring Quarterlys are now on sale, this is a good time to look them over and plan the spring wardrobe.

KINGSLEY'S
HERMISTON'S HOUSE OF QUALITY AND SERVICE

Here's the Spot TO COME for Aladdin

MANTLE LAMP Supplies

We Carry a Complete Line of Supplies and Parts for All Models

Oregon Hardware & Implement Co.
HERMISTON, OREGON

BURNHAM'S
General Merchandise

Friday - Saturday - Monday
CASH AT THE STORE

25 lbs. Red Mexican Beans	$1.15
10 lbs. Italian Prunes	58c
2 lbs. Ginger Snaps	25c
2 1-2 lb. box Fancy Chocolates	69c
1-3 lb. can BEST GRADE ROYAL CLUB Coffee	$1.09
4 Large cans Tuna Fish	$1.09
10 bars Crystal Soap	33c
6 LARGE OVAL CANS Sardines	48c
6 cans 20c Salmon	69c
18 lbs. Sugar	$1.00
3 boxes KRISPY SALTED Crackers	25c
Spuds, per sack	$1.00
10 lb. Can, Pure Cane and Maple Syrup	$1.05
1 lb. NOT THE BEST BUT GOOD Coffee	25c
49 lb. sack Flour	$1.10
Pop Corn that Pops, 2 lbs.	25c
Thread, 6 spools	25c
Overalls	98c
Mens' Work Shoes	$2.95

WHY PAY MORE - BUY FOR LESS