Editorial
A man can become a member of the black shirt brigade without going to Italy. Just let him fix the pipes in some basements.

R. A. Brownson, Editor.

But on the other hand, a basement can be fixed up fit to serve as the reception room for a king.

How? By remodeling and we are glad to show you how.

In a blindfold test conducted recently, 9 out of 10 selected Fir-Tex as the best insulator for their home. If a blindfolded person can tell the difference, why can't you?

D. E. Sherry has returned to the project to live. He has rented and repaired a house near his place northwest of town.

Passer-by: "What is the horsepower of your car?"

Voice of owner from under car: "Forty."

Passer-by: "What is wrong with it?"

Owner: "As far as I can make out, thirty-nine horses have bolted, and the remaining one is too upset to answer questions."

Insulation protects the health of a home, 25,947 physicians would agree. In winter it conserves heat and keeps the house at an even temperature; in summer it keeps out the heat from the sun, making a home more comfortable.

Special price of 80c for 1 quart of Kitchen-Brite on Saturday. Limit of 1 quart to a customer, so come early and get yours.

Probably the closest the editor will ever come to making a hole in one, was watching Carl McNaught make one Sunday on the seventh hole of the Hermiston Golf Course.
