

Local Happenings

D. M. Deeter and Eric Byorkgren went to Walla Walla Labor Day and enjoyed the day playing golf.

Mrs. O. O. Felthouse, and Mrs. A. W. Christopherson were business visitors in Walla Walla Wednesday.

Monte Hedwall, buttermaker in the Heppner creamery, visited friends and relatives here over the week end.

Miss Dorothy Compton of Messner was a visitor here from Friday until Monday. Miss Compton formerly lived at Aberdeen, Wn.

Bill Kik, who resides in the North Hill district, returned Thursday from a business trip to Long Beach, California.

A cooked food sale will be held at the Hermiston Meat Market Saturday, September 12, at 1:00 o'clock, for the benefit of the M. E. church.

Mrs. Edward Schofield of Vancouver, Wn., who has been visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Warner, for several days left Thursday morning for her home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Cassidy and two sons, Wayne and Jerry, of Walla Walla, Wn., spent Sunday and Monday visiting with Mrs. Cassidy's sister, Mrs. A. E. Bensel.

Miss Helen Nance who is a student at the University of Washington visited over the week end with Mrs. J. H. Reid in Columbia district.

Mrs. O. O. Felthouse and Mrs. Bert Mullens were business visitors in Pendleton Tuesday afternoon.

Don Klagas, Ruth Bensel, and Walter Pierson motored to Pendleton Sunday evening where they visited friends and attended a show.

Doris Lambirth, daughter of Mrs. Pearl Lambirth, will attend school in Echo this winter. She will live with her cousin, Mrs. Alfred Hiatt.

Dr. Currey of Seattle was in town Friday of last week and will return in about six weeks to take care of those needing optical attention. He reports that he had a good day here.

Marie Stephenson left last Friday for Portland where she will spend two weeks combining business and pleasure. She operated the Hunter's Cafe here until recently.

Mrs. N. Muller and infant son, Franklin, returned last Thursday night from Hope, Idaho, where she has been for the past month and a half.

Ted West was released from the Hermiston Medical hospital Wednesday morning after he had received medical attention for several days. Mr. Seitz will take care of his work at the Umatilla Cooperative Creamery until he is able to resume his duties.

Geo. Teufel and Clarence Edmonson, both students at the University of Washington, were week end guests of Jim Reid, son of J. H. Reid who lives in Columbia district.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilson motored to Milton Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Osborn who will visit with them this week. The Wilsons live in Columbia district.

Miss Nelma Saylor of Butter Creek will leave Friday for Woodburn, Or., where she will teach home economics and direct the music in the Woodburn high school.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Vernoy are the proud parents of a baby daughter born Tuesday, September 1. She weighed 5 1/2 pounds and has been named Evelyn Lelores.

Joe Sayer of La Grande and Geo. Summerville of Pendleton were business visitors in Hermiston Wednesday. They are friends of Miss Ruth Bensel, having gone to school with her at the Eastern Oregon Normal.

Miss Clara Hedwall left for Monument Sunday where she will take up her duties as teacher in the schools there. Clara has been attending summer school in LaGrande during part of her vacation.

Miss Estelle Robins of Spokane, Wn., came last Wednesday and visited until Saturday with her friend Mrs. J. H. Reid in Columbia district. She was returning from a tour of California and other coast routes.

Virginia Rodda left Thursday morning for Corvallis where she will teach the third grade in the Harding school. At Arlington she will join her friend Ilo Merrill of Hardman, Oregon, who will go to Alsea where she teaches in the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Vestal left Saturday for The Dalles where they will make their home for the present. Mrs. Vestal will be remembered as Mrs. Bills.

Mrs. J. M. Pace, and son Harold, and Miss Margaret Bills went to Portland Saturday and remained until Tuesday. Miss Bills joined her mother at The Dalles on their return trip Tuesday evening.

Mrs. H. E. Hitt entertained with two tables of bridge Tuesday evening with four tables of bridge. Mrs. Robert Yeager of Walla Walla was honor guest of the evening, and received a number of lovely gifts.

Mrs. F. B. Barker entertained a number of friends Wednesday evening with four tables of bridge. Mrs. Robert Yeager of Walla Walla was honor guest of the evening, and received a number of lovely gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Cerking returned the first of the week from a week's vacation spent near Wallowa lake. They climbed to Aneroid lakes above Wallowa lake and did considerable fishing. The weather was ideal during their stay.

Fred Klagas, of South Dakota, Donald and Ed Klagas of Spokane, and Howard Klagas arrived in Hermiston Saturday night to visit their parents, and friends. Howard has been visiting Donald and Ed in Spokane and returned with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright and two daughters, Eleanor and Eloise, of Salem, were week end guests at the Cuiwitz home. The Wrights were enroute to North Powder where Eloise will remain and take up her duties as teacher in the schools.

Roy Thomas, chief clerk at the Kingsley department store, was called to Salem Tuesday morning by the serious illness of his wife. He left immediately by auto. Harold Pace is assisting in the store during his absence.

Charles Lynch and family plan to move some time this week to the ranch south of Hermiston known as the Raley ranch. Mr. Lynch has farmed in Columbia district for the past five years and is one of the leading dairymen on the project, his herd leading the Umatilla Herd Improvement association in the past five months.

Rev. and Mrs. Chas. Sias of Athena, parents of Miss Gies Sias who taught for two years in Columbia district school, left Athena last Wednesday, September 2, for Turner, Oregon, where they will have charge of the Boys' home. Rev. Sias has been pastor of the Christian church in Athena for the past two years.

Mrs. A. W. Turnblad left Saturday for Union, Oregon, with her daughter and family. Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Decker. Mr. Decker came for his wife, who has been visiting her mother for the past two weeks. The two children, Jimmie and Jean, have spent the summer with their grandmother. Margaret Clark is staying nights with Edna Turnblad during the absence of her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Spieker of Wessington, South Dakota, visited a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. John Paxton in Columbia district. Mrs. Paxton accompanied them from here through the Grande Rond valley to Enterprise and Wallowa lake where they visited relatives. The last of the week they returned to Milton where Mrs. Paxton remained until Sunday, when she returned home with Leonard Case of Freewater. Mr. Case visited at the Paxton home until Tuesday afternoon when Miss Elsie Paxton went to Pendleton with him.

STANFIELD NEWS ITEMS

Miss Laura Wallace left Saturday for Maxfield in Wallowa county where she will teach this year. Thomas Richards returned Friday from Plainwell, Michigan, where he has been for the past four months with his son Charles. S. R. Cooper made a business trip to Portland Saturday.

Miss Alice Longhary spent the week end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Longhary. Alice is a member of the senior class of the Pendleton high.

Mrs. F. A. Baker spent Wednesday in Pendleton shopping and attending a meeting of the county library board of which she has been a member for the past three years. There will be a dance in the Watts hall Saturday evening September 12.

Carl Rhea returned Thursday from Redmond where he has been working since school closed in May. Lon Jeffries is installing a water system on the Dick Tom farm on the Umatilla.

Miss Betty Thorne and her friend Mr. Peterson of Gresham, Oregon, were week end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thorne.

Dr. and Mrs. A. Reid of Umatilla spent Sunday at the F. B. Stuart home.

Mrs. J. F. Bogan left Sunday for Omak, Wn., for an extended visit with her daughter Mrs. Earnest Longhary.

The orchardists in this vicinity are busy picking D'anjon pears and hauling them to the packing house where there is a force of workmen washing, sorting and packing. W. G. Wallace has charge of the packing plant.

The Pollyanna club resumed meetings after the summer vacation, this week. Mrs. Hoggard was hostess at her home on Wednesday with all members present. Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. H. R. Wessell and Mrs. William Kimbrell.

Miss Beryl Hale entertained a group of young people at her home Monday evening.

Miss Rachel Sloan underwent a tonsil operation in Portland last week. Her mother, Mrs. Frank Sloan, accompanied her to Portland.

The Ladies Aid will meet in the church parlors Thursday afternoon September 17. An interesting feature of the afternoon will be the August-September "birthday party." Mrs. F. S. Green was called to Portland Saturday on account of illness of her sister Mrs. Floyd Cole. Stanfield Grange met in regular session Monday night. Two new members were given membership in the order.

Fire insurance agent, Bro. Fred Thorne, reported having written three policies since the last meeting. At the conclusion of the business meeting a very interesting Labor Day program was presented under the direction of the Lecturer Mrs. J. M. Richards.

Mrs. Blanche Thorsen left Saturday for The Dalles where she is a newly elected member of the grade school faculty.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kimbrell and children Betty Jean and William arrived Monday for an extended visit with Mrs. Kimbrell's mother, Mrs. Agnes Hills.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Dawson are motoring to California where they will visit relatives at Oakland and other California cities.

Guests at the W. G. Wallace home the first of the week were Mrs. Wallace's brother, Carl Sturdivant of Portland, and Messrs. Mal and Charles Sturdivant of Pendleton.

Mrs. D. R. Starkweather was pleasantly surprised when her brother J. B. Graham and family came from North Powder to be her guests for a short time. The Graham family lived here several years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Waid of Yakima, Wn., were week end guests at the home of Mr. Waid's brother J. W. Waid. Mr. Waid will be remembered as one of the Stanfield pioneers.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Jump have returned from their boat trip to California. Mr. Jump visited with several citrus fruit growers in the vicinity of Escondido and found that they were paying as high as $35 per acre for water. They are feeling the effect of the depression as well as other fruit growers. The Jumps went as far south as Tia Juana, Mexico.

MINNEHAHA NEWS NOTES

Miss Virginia Rodda returned home Saturday for a few days after vacationing with Mrs. Jessie M. Hesser at Seaview, Washington. Dan and Dorothy Russell have gone to Pendleton where they will attend school. They have been with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Albright, and attended the Minnehaha school last year.

Mrs. A. W. Turnblad went with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Decker to Union where she will visit for a few days. Jimmy and Jean Decker returned with them. They have been visiting with their grandmother this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Deeter have moved into the teacherage at the Minnehaha school.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Oral of La Grande visited Saturday and Sunday at the M. T. Matott home. Rosella Matott returned with them and will attend school at La Grande.

Bill Comstock has returned home after vacationing near Bend. A ditch crew mowed the Maxwell ditch in this district Saturday.

W. G. Rodda returned from Pilot Rock Friday after spending a week there.

Burt Young has returned from Portland where he spent the summer at his home there. While here he will live with his grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Albright and attend high school.

Jane Jackson visited several days last week with her sister, Grace, at Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Jackson and son, Jimmy, motored to Pendleton Saturday and Grace and Jane returned with them.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Jackson and sons Billy and Bobby returned home the last of the week after spending a week at Portland and Seaside.

The Minnehaha school began Monday, September 7th.

The U-Go I-Go club met at the C. C. Christiansen home with Mrs. Christiansen and Mrs. Carson Linder as hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Clark entertained at bridge Saturday evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Matott, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Haneline, and Mr. and Mrs. Clark. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. J. T. McGreal and Mrs. D. S. McGreal visited Tuesday and Wednesday at the J. W. Hamman home. Mrs. D. S. McGreal is Mr. Hamman's niece.

W. E. Putman, brother-in-law of Mrs. Hineline, and daughters Jessie Kingsley and Nona Putman, also Miss Martha Iversen of Portland were overnight guests Saturday at the W. A. Hineline home. They were enroute to the William's re-

Specials for
- SATURDAY -

POT ROAST BEEF	15c
SHOULDER PORK ROAST	15c
FIG HOCKS	5c
PORK CHOPS	20c
NO. 8 PAIL LARD	$1.10
NO. 4 PAIL LARD	60c

WE HANDLE A FULL LINE OF FRESH AND CURED MEATS AT ALL TIMES. OUR MOTTO—
QUALITY — * — PRICE — * — SERVICE
"THE HOME OF QUALITY MEATS"
Hermiston Meat Market
A. W. TURNBLAD — PHONE 411

union which was held at Milton on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hineline accompanied them to Milton.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl A. Williams of Portland and Miss Emma Williams of Corning, Kansas, were luncheon guests at the Hineline home on Monday.

Mary Brian, owner of the big ranch where they come to idle their time, is fascinated by their big city manners. She falls for Boyd. He tells her he is a financier who, with his associates, is prepared to spend large funds in booming the section where she lives.

She jilts Arlen, who has outspoken opinions of the real character of these visitors. His suspicions are verified when Boyd slays Strike Jack son, veteran prospector who has discovered a rich gold vein which Boyd calculates he'll appropriate by force.

Thus the battle is precipitated, Arlen on one side, with his mustang-hunting pals—Boyd on the other with his desperate cronies who have by this time taken over the town, ruling it with a reign of terror.

Herald Subscription $2.00 a Year

Oasis Theatre
THE BEST IN TALKING PICTURES
Hermiston, Oregon

PROGRAM
FRIDAY AND SATURDAY
RICHARD ARLEN
in
"Gun Smoke"
A Paramount Picture with Mary Brian, Eugene Pallette, and William Boyd.

Love at the point of a gun! A gang of Eastern "tough guys" invades the Great Open Spaces and try to hold the he-men of the Old West at bay! Do they succeed?

College Initiation Comedy "MY HERO" and "HIS HONOR, THE MAYOR" another comedy.

SUNDAY AND MONDAY
Matinee 2:30 Sunday
LIBERTY 3-STAR PICTURE
HEARTS WERE HER TOYS

ELISSA LANDI
"ALWAYS GOODBYE"
LEWIS STONE

100 MILLION AMERICANS Can't Be Wrong!

They're still talking, dreaming, raving about this gorgeous beauty—and her sensational performance in "Body and Soul." Now she returns to thrill you, enchant you, mystify you in her first starring picture.

Fox News and a Comedy
"THE LOVE PUNCH"

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilson motored to Milton Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Osborn who will visit with them this week. The Wilsons live in Columbia district.

Miss Nelma Saylor of Butter Creek will leave Friday for Woodburn, Or., where she will teach home economics and direct the music in the Woodburn high school.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Vernoy are the proud parents of a baby daughter born Tuesday, September 1. She weighed 5 1/2 pounds and has been named Evelyn Lelores.

Joe Sayer of La Grande and Geo. Summerville of Pendleton were business visitors in Hermiston Wednesday. They are friends of Miss Ruth Bensel, having gone to school with her at the Eastern Oregon Normal.

Miss Clara Hedwall left for Monument Sunday where she will take up her duties as teacher in the schools there. Clara has been attending summer school in LaGrande during part of her vacation.

Miss Estelle Robins of Spokane, Wn., came last Wednesday and visited until Saturday with her friend Mrs. J. H. Reid in Columbia district. She was returning from a tour of California and other coast routes.

Virginia Rodda left Thursday morning for Corvallis where she will teach the third grade in the Harding school. At Arlington she will join her friend Ilo Merrill of Hardman, Oregon, who will go to Alsea where she teaches in the high school.

Your Old Shoes Made New
SPECIAL NEW PRICES
After August 1st.
Halfsole Men's Shoes
From $1.50 to $1.25
Rubber Heels on Women's Shoes
From 50c to 35c

BOWMAN SHOESHOP

HERE you can name your price and still decide... "I will buy only THE leading make of tire ... Goodyear."

Rohman Motor Co.
Phone 571 Hermiston, Ore.

ALL TYPES.. ALL SIZES.. ALL PRICES.. -ALL GOODYEAR-

TUM-A-LUM TICKLER
Published in the interests of the people of Hermiston and vicinity by Tum-A-Lum Lumber Co. — Phone 331.

Vol. 31 Hermiston, Or., Thursday, September 10, 1931 No. 42

Editorial
The second grade of the Hermiston school was having a lesson on coal, with a picture of miners at work.

"What do they do with the coal after taking it from the mine asked the teacher?"

"Take it to the Tum-A-Lum," a little boy answered.

R. A. Brownson, Editor.

Pome
Man golfs from Sun to sun, But woman's bridge is never done.

Dick Thom took out a load of cement for improvements on his ranch, this week.

Fix up that spare room! $30.00 worth of material may be enough! It will make an ideal den or a new bed room for the coming winter.

Our Tum-A-Lum Kitch-n-Brite paint will make the kitchen bright and cheery for the housewife to work in this winter. Its semi-lustrous finish is very easily cleaned.

H. W. Laudermilk is laying a new floor for A. C. Woughter.

SEPTEMBER HARVEST TIME

FOOD EVENT

SPECIALS — SAT. & MON. September 12th & 14th.

FLOUR MACMARR BRAND 49 Lb. BAG
ALL HARDWHEAT	89c
A PERFECT FAMILY FLOUR
SNOWDRIFT 3 LB. PAIL	65c
CRACKERS TRU BLU 3 LB. CADDY	37c
Waxed Paper 40 FOOT X 12 INCHES IN CUTTER BOX	9c
COFFEE MACMARR SPECIAL PER LB. CANNED COFFEE
QUALITY IN BULK. SAVE THE COST OF THE TINS AND MORE.	29c
ROYAL Baking Powder 12 OZ. TIN	45c
WRIGLEY'S AND AMERICAN ALL FLAVORS 3 FOR
CHICLE Gum	10c
Mothers Oats CHINA LGE. PREMIUM PACKAGE	35c
PAR PERFECT CONCENTRATED SOAP—DISOLVES INSTANTLY IS EFFICIENT AND YET EASY ON THE HANDS. — LGE. PKG.	37c
Deviled Meat, 6 cans	25c

Hermiston, Oregon MACMARR STORES Phone 241