Mrs. Frank Stone who has been employed as bookkeeper at the Umatilla Cooperative Creamery starting the first of November.

H. A. Pankow, Earl Bensef, G. R. Robinson, and Russell Blessing returned from a hunting in the mountains near John Day Monday evening. They had no luck. Earl Bensef lost himself in a canyon all day Sunday until late at night. He encountered a party of hunters who had nine buck and they directed him to camp.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Frink of Portland arrived in Hermiston Wednesday and will visit indefinitely with Dr. and Mrs. F. V. Prime. Mrs. Frink is Mrs. Prime's sister.

B. S. Kingsley, owner and manager of Kingsley's Department store, left Tuesday for Portland where he will spend several days looking after business interests.

Norman Pennock and Elbert Hutchison spent the first two days of the week in the mountains hunting deer. They had no luck but plan to go again soon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Warner went to Portland last Friday where they visited their daughter, Mrs. Ed Schofield in Vancouver, and attended the Oregon State-University of Colorado football game in Portland Saturday. Oregon State won by a score 16-0.

Mrs. Perry Arthur of Columbia district went to LaGrande last Saturday to attend the funeral of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Albert See. Mrs. See had been ill with pneumonia only a short while and leaves five small children. Mrs. Arthur returned the first of the week.

Garnet D. Best, assistant county agent, left Saturday for Salem with the judging team from Umatilla county, who were all from Pilot Rock. The Umatilla judging team made a score of 2955, while first place was taken by Yamhill youths.

D. D. Follett went into the mountains last week deer hunting and returned with a big black bear. Bob Follett and family of Walla Walla was in town Saturday and Mr. Follett took the skin with him to mount it for a rug. The bear weighed a little less than 200 pounds.

Dishes, dishes, who's got the dishes? Propst Variety Store has the dishes. — Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. John Haddox of Pendleton, and Miss Ruth Lambirth, and Mrs. G. L. Bennett visited with Mrs. Pearl Lambirth and family over the week end. Mrs. Bennett and her husband formerly lived on the Tabor ranch here and are now moving from Echo to Portland.

Ted West will leave the last of the week for Grangeville, Idaho, where he will be employed in the Grangeville Creamery operated by E. W. West and Cecil Warner, former owners of the Hermiston Creamery before it was taken over by the Umatilla Cooperative Creamery. Ted has worked as a buttermaker for the creamery since it opened and B. E. Sykes will take care of the work now with the help of Jess VanPatten.

HER LIFE OR HIS SILENCE!
Does this man offer himself a living sacrifice that a great love may live?
IS A MAN'S LIFE EVER HIS OWN!
This man lives recklessly—for himself alone—until, like a thunderbolt, another's crime falls on his shoulders. And he cannot tell the truth. See why. He would sentence himself to death with "Silence". To speak means ruin for the woman he loves. Life or love—which?
