T. G. Gregory and son, and B. E. Lykes returned the middle of last week from a deer hunting trip in the Blue Mountains near LaGrande. They had no luck.

Mrs. Elizabeth Jones of Seattle visited her friend, Mrs. Pearl Lambirth here Tuesday. Mrs. Jones was returning from an extended motor trip and stopped to visit her old friend whom she had not seen for many years.

The ladies of the S. D. A. church will have a cooked food sale Friday, October 30, in the room next to Bowman's Shoe shop.

J. M. Biggs returned late Monday night from Portland where he has been looking after business matters for several days. While there he attended an executive meeting of the American Legion.

Miss Fannie Todd left Friday morning for Portland where she will remain for some time for medical treatment. Mrs. O. W. Barlow is teaching in the Columbia school during her absence.

Funeral services were held for Mrs. Hogue of Beaverton, Oregon, Sunday, according to an announcement in the Oregon Journal. Mrs. Hogue was the mother of Mrs. C. J. Bielman, who is a former resident here. Mrs. Hogue is survived by her husband, two sons, and three daughters.

A. M. Smith, C. Tillery, Virgil Smith, Lyle Tilden, Russell Blessing returned Monday from spending a week in the mountains hunting deer. Tilden shot a 4-point buck and A. M. Smith a good sized deer. It has been reported that about 18 deer have been brought into Hermiston this season.

Miss Fannie Todd underwent a major operation in the Portland sanatorium Monday of this week. Her sister, Mrs. G. E. Holt is with her and writes that she is getting along nicely. Mrs. O. W. Barlow is substituting for her in the Columbia district school during her absence. She plans to be discharged from the hospital in about two weeks.

Mr. Stocking, representative of the Meridian Produce Co., of Nampa, Idaho, was here the first of the week making arrangements for the purchase of turkeys through the Hermiston Meat Market. Mr. Stocking visited growers on the project while here. Purchasing dates for November, December, and January will be between the first and the tenth of the month. Prices will be in the hands of Mr. Turnblad by the first of the month and will be posted.

Mrs. Andrew Harvey of Pendleton visited with her sister, Mrs. Raymond Walker, here Tuesday.

MISS "NOWHERE" WINS CONTEST BY BEAUTY

A girl of 16 came out of "nowhere" to be the star of a great moving picture.

Her name is Reri, and until a few months ago she was as unknown to the great American public as Hollywood was unknown to her.

Reri is the heroine of "Tabu," the romance of the South Seas which comes to the Oasis theatre Sunday and Monday.

"Tabu" was filmed by the Murnau-Flaherty expedition to the Society Islands in the South Pacific, which natives of that fascinating region as the principals in the picture. No white people are cast in this gripping and romantic story of primitive loves and hates.

Before the work of filming was started, Murnau and his associates conducted a beauty contest in the Society group, finally choosing Reri of the island of Bora Bora, as the heroine of the film.

After the picture work was finished, Reri saw a "rough cut" of it. She made no comment upon the effect of the film on her future in screenland. For her work as a star was finished forever. She will never be in films again—for the simple reason that there is more fascination for her in her own beloved native island of Bora Bora than in any other place imaginable.

Those who see this amazing film will realize why Reri is content to stay in Bora Bora for the rest of her life. It is a veritable paradise—unsullied by the touch of modern civilization.

WHAT NEW YORK NEWSPAPERS SAID ABOUT CHEVALIER'S FILM

(From the Standard Union)

One of the really great pieces of screen entertainment for all time—with Maurice Chevalier offering the finest performance of his career in the title role and with Ernst Lubitsch surpassing his usual directorial wizardry, it is easy to see why "The Smiling Lieutenant" is sheer delight, from beginning to end. It is one of the cleverest satires ever filmed—the debonair and smiling Maurice has never been half so good. He is given a part that fits him perfectly and shows his appreciation by sparkling performance. Claudette Colbert is cast as a dashing musician and does better work than she has ever done.

Miriam Hopkins shows that she will have to be reckoned with in Paramount's future plans. The music suits the picture perfectly. It would seem as though the musical picture problem has been solved. Instead of fitting situation to suit songs, songs are fitting to suit the situations.

The point I am trying to put across is that you MUST see "The Smiling Lieutenant" by all means. It offers entertainment that has never yet been surpassed in any theatre. To be seen at the Oasis Friday and Saturday.

UNION PACIFIC TO OFFER LOW ROUND TRIP FARES.

An increase in winter holiday travel is expected by the Union Pacific which will offer very low round trip fares from the east and middle west to principal Oregon and Washington points, December 16 to 22, according to W. K. Cundiff, general passenger agent. Eastbound round trips will also be reduced, available on October 31; November 7, 14, 21, 23, 28 and 30; and December 5, 12, 17, 18 and 19.

"The Northwest will also be interested," Mr. Cundiff said, "in the recent decision of transcontinental lines to again offer low summer tourist fares in 1932, both eastbound and westbound. The sale dates in Oregon and Washington will be May 22 to October 15 with October 31 the last day for completing the return journey."

PROGRAM FRIDAY - SATURDAY Matinee 2:30 Saturday

The Smiling Lieutenant

with Maurice Chevalier, Claudette Colbert, Charlie Ruggles, Miriam Hopkins

There's only one Chevalier—you'll know that more than ever when you see him as the dashing—devil-may-care lover.

Blond or Brunette? Maurice plays no favorites—he's equally attentive to gorgeous Claudette and fascinating Miriam. Each wants all of him—and he lets them decide for themselves which it shall be! Blond or brunette—which charms can capture this winking, singing, wooing love-maker? Maurice his joyous, happy self in this love-story in song and action.

ON GUARD! Against Love—Maurice plays with fire when he plays with hearts!

SUNDAY AND MONDAY MATINEE 2:30 SUNDAY
