Depression Hits Society Circles.

Again the editor of a weekly newspaper is hit by the depression that prevails over the entire world. We have been hit by the inability of business men to carry ads, or shorten them; by the Municipality taking away our legal business by posting their legal notices on telephone poles, bill-boards, etc.; by the subscribers trading farm produce for subscriptions, in fact about all we had left was the society items, marriages, funerals, local happenings, and now—we are asked not to print the local bridge parties for fear that some folks in this big family of ours will feel that giving a party is "high-hat" and extravagant, and that the poor farmers will cease to support our village.

Now, what is a poor country editor going to do about that? Just continue to print the paper, or, perhaps just send out weekly circulars to our subscribers so that there will be nothing printed that the other fellow might see—sort of a secret paper. Yes we will. Tell us of anything that can happen in a community this size without everyone knowing about it before you do; in fact we have our calendar market for the next three months of coming events so don't be bashful about your activities, give us a BREAK.

And we read that the world, from a high elevation, looks like a bowl—why bring that up, we know the depression is on.

this, and railroad that we are sure of two things. There are guests in the house, and that Dad travels extensively.

Portland can boast of her whale, but we prefer to boast a whale of a lot more about our sunshine and turkeys east of the Cascades.

To be frank about it, we are not much interested here in the "wide-open spaces" over the trade by Britan to America of battleships for her war debt. We would rather have the money to reduce our taxes.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Probation After Death" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, Oct. 25.

The Golden Text was, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God; and they that hear shall live" (John 5:25).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: he thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life" (Rev. 2:10).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures", by Mary Baker Eddy: "The God-inspired walk calmly on though it be with bleeding foot-prints, and in the hereafter they will reap what they now sow. The pampered hypocrite may have a flowery pathway here, but he cannot forever break the Golden Rule and escape the penalty due" (p.41).

STANFIELD NEWS ITEMS

MAKE PROSPERITY A FAMILY HABIT.

Among our depositors are many families whose three living generations habitually bank with us. Invariably we have found that those who have learned, and have taught their children, to save regularly, are among the most prosperous families in Hermiston. Saving regularly involves self sacrifice—to a certain—healthful—extent. It involves close adherence to a principle—but it results in a safe and sane prosperity. A bank, which has earned the confidence of three generations of many families, tells you this—and invites you to duplicate their prosperity history. That family wins, which works and saves together.
