Mrs. F. B. Swayze and Mrs. A. W. Christopherson entertained at a luncheon honoring Mrs. Edward C. Echofield, of Vancouver, Wn., Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Christopherson. Four tables of bridge were in play during the afternoon and Mrs. T. H. Fraser won the prize for high honors, and Mrs. C. M. Jackson consolation prize.

At a charming dessert-luncheon Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Neil Robertson, Mrs. Ralph Richards and Mrs. Robertson acted as joint hostesses. Six tables of bridge were in play during the afternoon. High honors were won by Mrs. J. M. Biggs, and consolation by Mrs. A. H. Norton.

A depression party was given at the home of Mrs. Pete Castric Thursday night when Mrs. Lyle Tilden and Mrs. Castric acted as joint hostesses. Score cards for the three tables had been drawn free hand by Mrs. Castric and were likenesses of characters from the fables, Pop Eye and Olive Oil. The depression prize was presented to Mrs. Guiwitz and was a phonograph record molded into a fruit dish. High honor were won by Mrs. H. E. Shesely, and consolation by Miss Myrtle Clayton.

A surprise birthday party honoring Mrs. Carson Linder was given at the Linder home last Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock by neighbors and friends who successfully planned the surprise. Following an informal afternoon of conversation and sewing, refreshments were served to the Mesdames Floyd Lairs, Will Reece, J. R. Harding, Frank Stielger, Chas. Stielger, Lena Sage, Jess Pringle, Cora Fobin and Wayne Maulkin.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Voelker of Du Pont, Wash., announce the engagement of their daughter Pauline to Marion Charles Hirtzel of Portland. Miss Voelker is a graduate of the University of Washington and the College of Puget Sound and is affiliated with Alpha Gamma Delta sorority. Mr. Hirtzel is a graduate of the Oregon State college and a member of Theta Chi fraternity. The wedding will be an event of early summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Voelker lived in Hermiston for a number of years when Mr. Voelker was superintendent of schools. They have many friends here who will be interested in the announcement.

Mrs. J. R. Harding was delightfully surprised last Sunday when neighbors and friends arranged a social time at the Carson Linder home honoring Mr. and Mrs. Harding's 27th wedding anniversary. Mrs. Harding was tactfully taken to the Linder home Sunday where she was greeted by approximately forty guests. A sumptuous dinner was served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sellinger and son Charles, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sellinger and son, Darrel; Mr. and Mrs. Oren Clark, and son Carl; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Laird and family; Mr. and Mrs. Jess Prindle; Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Turnblad and daughter, Edna; Mrs. Lena Sage and daughters Willa Jean, and Carrie; Mrs. Cora Tobin; Mr. and Mrs. L. Stewart; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Harding and son Harold; Emerson and Wayne Reece; Frank Cubegest; Ira Sellinger; Doyle Draper; Ira Cleveenger; and Mr. and Mrs. Carson Linder and family.

A group of neighbors and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Val Knauf who live east of town, Sunday, honoring Mr. and Mrs. August Linder's wedding anniversary. Dinner was served by the hostess and patriotic colors were in vogue. A lovely gift was presented the honor guests by their many friends who wished them many more happy wedding anniversaries. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Val Knauf, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Reid, Mrs. Annetta Barham, Childs Barham, Wesley Knauf, Lottie Knauf, Mary Ward, David Arnott, Barbara Reid, and Jannie Shockey.

Miss Clara Hall entertained informally at her home Monday, February 22nd, honoring her mother, Mrs. Lola S. Hall, on her 93rd birthday. Table decorations were carried out in the national colors, red, white, and blue, and the huge birthday cake furnished by Mrs. Newton Whitford, was also a symbol of liberty.

Forming a background for Mrs. Hall as she was seated at the dinner table as honor guest, was a large black and white, homespun curtain that had been made by her mother many years ago. Later in the afternoon Mrs. Hall entertained by relating experiences of her early life. She said every family of moderate means made their own sugar, raised the flax for the thread that they made to spin and weave their clothing. Her mother made 60 yards of cloth one winter, she said "I could spin and weave today," said Mrs. Hall, "if it were necessary." She also quoted scripture and gave the entire fourteenth chapter of John which she has recently learned. She is well, healthy and happy.

Mrs. Hall has received many birthday greetings from New York state, Florida, Kansas, Missouri Michigan, and many other parts of the country, from friends she has made during nearly a century sojourn here. Monday evening after the guests had gone and the family were spending the time quietly, listening to the radio, Mrs. Hall received a birthday greeting in the form of a song sung in her honor by Tom Mitchell over KEX Portland. She was made happy by this climax to her day, arranged by her son, G. L. Hall, of McMinnville who was here for the occasion.

Covers were laid for the honor guest, G. L. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Whitford, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Hilsley, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Longhorn, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hanby and son Eugene, Mrs. Ella Potter, and Miss Clara Hall. Newton Whitford is a nephew of Mrs. Hall.
