WALLULA CUT-OFF ROUTE INSPECTED BY COMMISSION

After thorough inspection of the Wallula cut off over the week end, Leslie M. Scott, chairman of the Oregon state highway commission, announced that by March 16, that body should be armed with sufficient information to determine whether the final 7 1/2-mile section from Sand, Or., to the Oregon-Washington line should be built on the grade as formerly outlined or a new grade that would rise above the 330-foot level pools that would be created by any one of the four projected federal hydro-electric power dams on the Columbia river.

Chairman Scott and E. B. Aldrich, commissioner from eastern Oregon, accompanied by R. H. Baldock, state highway engineer, W. H. Lynch, federal highway engineer, Portland; T. M. PENDLETON HIGH WINS DISTRICT DEBATE SATURDAY

The Pendleton high school won the district high school debate held in Pendleton last Saturday. This year the debate was a triangular forensic contest in which Pendleton, Condon, and Hermiston participated. The question debated was: Resolved that the several states should enact legislation providing for compulsory unemployment insurance.

Pendleton won two decisions and the votes of five judges. Condon won one debate and the votes of two judges. Hermiston, although convincing two of the judges that they had the better of the argument, failed to win a decision, which gave the Condon high school second place.

The students who represented Hermiston on the negative team were: Janney Shockey and Margaret [Name] and the affirmative side of the question was upheld by Mary Ward and Floyd McMullen.

Mrs. L. R. Lawson sprained her ankle badly the first of the week and will not be able to walk on it for an indefinite time. She was walking down the back steps when she turned her ankle and fell.

Her parents moved to Wallawa, Or., years later where she met, and married Perry Pike. To this union eight children were born, five of them living. In 1906 Mr. and Mrs. Pike came to Umatilla where they have lived since.

Real Estate Transaction.

Marvin Hutchison of Pilot Rock, brother of Baxter Hutchison who lives in Columbia district, purchased the 40-acre tract in the Columbia district this week, which is three miles east of the Columbia school house and generally known as the T. H. Hart place. The farm is now occupied by Ben Jones and family who intend to move onto the McGilreay place west of the Columbia school house. His brother, Baxter, will take care of the place at present.

JOY MONTH FEATURED BY OASIS THEATRE

The local theatre is attempting a new policy of giving more shows for less money and is inaugurating it with an extraordinary line-up of special attractions for the month of March. In other words, the public will be given the opportunity of seeing all the shows presented in more than two months for the same amount formerly paid to see only half of the pictures. Full details have been outlined in the program calendar issued by the theatre but a summary of the new arrangement is very interesting.

A person attending all the shows in March will be presented with a free pass good for every show for the six weeks starting with the first of April. This means that instead of paying fifty cents per show as formerly, the customer has been enabled to see the show at an average cost of only twenty cents per show.

In the event of the show-goer attending only six of the special shows in March he will be entitled to a pass for all the shows given in the first three show-weeks in April. This allows a price of twenty-five cents per show instead of fifty cents. The final bonus of a pass to the first two shows in April will be given persons attending only four shows during the month of March. These people will be paying only thirty-three and one-third cents per show.

The same ration of bonus shows will apply to children's admissions during this gala event.

The management of the theatre has announced the intention of the plan is to promote more regular and frequent attendance with no increase in cost to the movie fans.

MANY INGREDIENTS USED IN MODERN POULTRY RATIONS.

With the opening of spring many inquiries are being received by the Oregon experiment station as to the best ration for growing chicks and for laying hens. Following is a homemade mash recommended for chicks by F. E. Fox, associate professor of poultry husbandry, which is used with the college flocks:

- 80 pounds ground yellow corn
- 20 pounds ground wheat
- 20 pounds finely ground oats
- 24 pounds millrun
- 10 pounds meat meal
- 14 pounds fish meal
- 15 pounds dried milk
- 8 pounds alfalfa leaf meal
- 5 pounds steamed bone meal
- 5 pounds oyster shell flour
- 1 pound salt
- 2% cod liver oil, which is about one quart per 100 pounds of mash mixture. In mixing large quantities these proportions may be conveniently multiplied by 10.

The latter part of the third week the chicks are started on scratch feed by scattering some of it over the mash. The scratch feed consists of equal parts of finely cracked wheat and corn, and is kept before them along with the mash as long as the chicks are in the brooder house.

Some modifications are advisable when the chicks are put on the range, eliminating 10 pounds of the yellow corn, 5 pounds of the dried milk, and half of the bone meal and oyster shell flour. Ten pounds each of finely ground oats and barley may be added, while the scratch feed may be changed to two parts wheat, two parts corn and one part gray oats.

The mash that has proved satisfactory for laying hens is as follows:

- 320 pounds millrun
- 400 pounds ground wheat
- 400 pounds ground yellow corn
- 200 pounds ground oats
- 100 pounds ground barley
- 200 pounds meat meal
- 100 pounds fish meal
- 100 pounds dried milk
- 80 pounds alfalfa leaf meal
- 50 pounds bone meal
- 20 pounds oil meal
- 20 pounds oyster shell flour
- 10 pounds salt
- 2% cod liver oil in winter.

GOLF ENTHUSIASTS WILL OUTLINE PROGRAM FOR YEAR

The first meeting of the season for the Hermiston Golf club will be held Friday evening in the Tum-A-Lum Lumber company office, at which time officers will be elected for the year, committees appointed, and a program outlined for the year. This year the club is extending invitations to all the golf enthusiasts in the city of Hermiston and surrounding towns to join the local club. Confidence is held for a large membership to participate in the interesting season's program.

All clubs in Umatilla county have formed a league this year, for the purpose of furnishing tournament play and with this in store the local golfers will have an opportunity to try out other courses in the county, and also to entertain other clubs on the local course. The first game is slated to be held at Hermiston some time this month, when all the clubs of the county will be represented.

Each club is allowed ten players and Friday night will decide the means of competition for qualifying to represent the local club. Among other things the club members will discuss the possibility of erecting a club house on the local course.

Golf enthusiasts say the local course is in fine shape at present and with a few more warm days the course will be in perfect condition. Since the county court authorized improvements on the road leading to the course this spring it is only a few minutes drive from town for those who enjoy a pleasant round of golf where plenty of fresh air is available on the West Hill.

ALONG THE CONCRETE

J. S. Burnham informed me this week that a man should be able to keep nights as long as he is honest and had a clear conscience. A customer happened in about that time and inquired whether Burnham had been sleeping any better of late. J. S. is going to vote for "Alfalfa Bill."

Two members of the local orchestra, masculine gender, are thinking seriously of buying a new Remington noiseless portable typewriter. Do you suppose it could be possible that Harold and Edmund are tired of hearing their own music, and want something that is noiseless for a change?

U.H.S., U.H.S., echoed back from the concrete this afternoon. Just a peppy bunch of high school students from Umatilla advertising the tournament to be held there Friday and Saturday. It brings back reminiscence of the high school days.

A news dispatch says that Mrs. Rudy Vallee is terribly lonesome for her husband while he is away in New York, and that she listens to him sing over the radio every night. So that is the reason for all the crooning! We hope it will be so she can go with him soon.

The manager of the Rohman Motor company was seen with three young ladies Sunday riding around in a Lincoln. It may be that he was showing off the young ladies, or the car, but whichever it was, the streets of Hermiston seemed deserted when they drove down the "main drag."

Under the supposition that W. J. Warner slept late in the morning, R. A. Brownson made an early morning call on the White Leghorns in the Warner chicken house, and emerged with a large bucket of eggs. This all happened one day this week and we are supposing Mr. Brownson came from the chicken house as he came from that general direction. Anyway that would not be a bad idea to make the early morning call.
