STANFIELD NEWS ITEMS

Mrs. Geo. Baars of Oregon City is a guest at the home of her father, J. D. Wallace. The James Kirby family are moving to the Heath farm east of town. Members of the Study club spent an enjoyable afternoon Thursday at the home of Mrs. E. A. Hoosier. Mrs. J. M. Richards read a paper on "Irish Music," presenting the subject from the time of the harp in pagan Ireland down to the country fiddle, and present-day music. Mrs. E. A. Hoosier, who has a pleasing soprano voice, sang several Irish songs. Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Geo. Baars and Miss Lenna Wald. Miss Catherine Cooper, who teaches at Marshfield, spent Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Cooper. Mr. and Mrs. Harle Rogers were in Portland last week. Mrs. C. Cardwell of Spokane is a guest at the home of her uncle, Ed Brown. The bridge crew has arrived in Stanfield to repair the damage done by the recent high water. A new forty foot span will be added. An evening of delightful entertainment was provided by the Ladies Aid at the church Wednesday night. Members of the organization presented an unusually novel play entitled, "Ways and a Way" under the direction of Mrs. J. M. Richards. The cast included "Chicken Dinner and Food Sale," Mrs. E. A. Hoosier; "Bazaar," Mrs. W. W. Kelly; "Entertainment," Miss Helen Fredrickson; "Silver Tea," Miss Lenna Wald; "Rummage Sale," Mrs. J. M. Richards; "Solicitor," Mrs. H. L. Hedrick; "Proportionate Giving," Mrs. S. R. Cooper and the "Resident," Mrs. F. A. Baker. Other contributions to the program were violin number by Billie Penney, Freddy Wald and Esther Fredrickson; a reading "Hey, Ma!" by Wayne Kelly; pleasing vocal numbers by Miss Rose Hoosier and Mrs. E. A. Hoosier; and piano solos and duets by Marjorie Cooper and Vivian Croner. After the program all retired to the church basement where the first event was the auctioning of the community name quilt with Supl. W. W. Kelly as auctioneer. Mrs. C. D. Connor was high bidder. Each person whose name was included in the quilt paid a penny per letter. The remainder of the evening was spent in a social way honoring Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Ling on the 57th anniversary. Miss Blanche Thorsen and her friend Miss Bryant spent their Easter vacation at the S. Thorsen home on the Meadows. James C. Hoskins is building a barn on the place to which he has recently moved. T. Ferguson has purchased land near Milton-Freewater and will move his family there at once. A no-host dinner party was held at the T. A. O'Grady home at Hermiston Sunday evening in observance of the seventieth birthday of Mrs. O'Grady's father, Thomas L. Stewart. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. M. Refvem, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Barager, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hoggard, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Burnham, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Richards, Patricia Richards, Lee Uettets, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. O'Grady, and Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Stewart. Stanfield D. E. S. members will hold an informal dinner party at Hotel Stanfield this evening honoring Grand Conductress, Mona Hauser of Salem. Mrs. Hauser will hold a school of instruction in Hermiston for the O.E.S. members in the Echo-Hermiston district. Members from Stanfield in attendance will be Miss Elva Perry, Mrs. M. Refvem, C. M. McCall, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sloan and Mrs. Florence B. Connor. Miss Helen Connor spent the week end in Portland as a guest at the Fred Hale home. Mrs. U. G. Shipley of Miram is visiting at the C. D. Connor and C. Dunn homes, being called here by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Dunn. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hill of Pasco are visiting at the C. Dunn home.

written by Mrs. Agnes Hills. Several one-minute plays were presented by grange members. Mike Rowell sang a solo "Three Leaves of Shamrock." Adding much to the evening's pleasure were the violin solos played by Esther Fredrickson, with Helen Fredrickson at the piano. William Fredrickson delighted the audience with several accordion solos. Ensemble numbers, violin piano and accordion, were well received. The Pollyanna club met at the Miles Barager home Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Barager and Mrs. Thomas O'Grady as hostesses. In order to add more spice to the meeting the members came costumed to represent gypsies, school girls, old fashioned ladies. Francis Duyck motored to Portland Friday and returned Sunday, bringing Mrs. Duyck and little daughter with him. They will live on the Sunrise ranch, which place Mr. Duyck has recently leased.

CHARLES ROGERS LAYS PLANS TO DEVELOP PICTURE CAREER.

Hollywood press reports quote Charles "Buddy" Rogers as saying: "I do not wish to desert the screen permanently. I hope to make two or three pictures a year, after I take over my new work." With the above thought in mind, Rogers has been perfecting plans whereby he may continue to develop his picture career and at the same time carry out his idea of organizing a jazz orchestra for theatre feature and radio broadcasting purposes. Rogers states that his plan for organizing an orchestra with himself as its leader has been delayed on account of his recent work in pictures. In the last few months he has been busy with the filming of "The Road to Reno," "Working Girls" and "This Reckless Age." This last picture featuring Charles "Buddy" Rogers, Richard Bennett, Peggy Shannon, Chaffie Ruggles, Frances Dee and Frances Starr, is a feature at the Oasiz theatre Sunday and Monday.

Of the Hermiston Herald, published weekly at Hermiston, Umatilla county, Oregon, for October 1, 1931. Before me, a notary public in and for the State and county aforesaid, personally appeared Pauline M. Stoop, who having been duly sworn according to the law, depose and says that she is editor of the Hermiston Herald, and that the following is, to the best of her knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management (and if a daily paper, the circulation), etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, embodied in Section 443, Postal Regulations, printed on the reverse of this form, to-wit:

1. That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, managing editor, and business managers are: Publishers, Pauline M. Stoop and Alfred Quiring, Hermiston, Oregon. Editor, Pauline M. Stoop, Hermiston, Oregon. Shop foreman, Alfred Quiring, Hermiston, Oregon. Business Managers, Pauline M. Stoop and Alfred Quiring, Hermiston, Oregon.

2. That the owners are: (Give names and addresses of individuals owners, or, if a corporation, address of stockholders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of the total amount of stock) Earl Richardson, Dallas, Oregon; Pauline M. Stoop and Alfred Quiring, Hermiston, Oregon.

3. That the known bondholders, mortgages and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are: H. J. Simmons, Fossil, Oregon; and the J. S. Harvey Estate, Long Beach, Calif. Subscribed and sworn to before me this 1st day of April, 1932.

W. J. WARNER, (My Commission expires October 1, 1933.)

Sheriff's Sale.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that, under and by virtue of a writ of execution issued out of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon in and for the County of Umatilla, under the seal thereof, and to me directed and delivered upon a judgement and decree rendered and entered in said Court on the 29th day of February, 1932, in favor of R. O. Hawks as plaintiff, and against Thomas H. Haddox and Etta Belle Haddox, and The First National Bank of Hermiston, as defendants, whereby the plaintiff did recover a personal decree against the defendants Thomas H. Haddox and Etta Belle Haddox for the sum of $1500.00 with interest thereon at the rate of 7% per annum from the 24th day of June, 1927, and the further sum of $150.00 attorney's fees, and the costs and disbursements taxed at $38.90.

and whereby it was decreed that that certain mortgage dated the 24th day of December, 1920, executed by Thomas H. Haddox and Etta Belle Haddox to plaintiff upon the following described real property, to-wit:

The West one-half of the Northwest quarter of the Southwest quarter of Section 27, Twp. 5 North, Rg. 29 E.W.M. in Umatilla County, Oregon, shown and designated on the maps of the Umatilla Project of the United States Reclamation Service as Unit "C" in the Southwest quarter of Section 27, which mortgage was recorded on the 17th day of February, 1921, at page 168 of Book 73 of the records of mortgages in the office of the County Recorder of Umatilla County, Oregon, should be foreclosed, and the said real property sold by the Sheriff of Umatilla County, Oregon, to satisfy said judgement and all costs; therefore, I will on Saturday, April 2, 1932, at two o'clock in the afternoon of that day, at the front door of the County Court house in Pendleton, Umatilla County, Oregon, sell all the right, title, interest and estate which said defendants, and all persons claiming and to claim by, through, or under them, or any of them, had on the 24th day of December, 1920, or since then have, or now have, in and to the above described real property and every part thereof, at public auction to the highest bidder, for cash in hand, the proceeds of such sale to be applied in satisfaction of said execution and all costs.

Dated this 1st day of March, 1932. T. B. CURDANE, Sheriff of Umatilla County, Oregon. By Grace Jackson, Deputy. (March 3—March 31)
