Let Congress Economize Time.

Spurred on by the personal appeal of President Hoover, the senate has finally passed a tax bill which may fairly be described as the best it could do under the circumstances.

Then only half the work of balancing the budget will have been done. The other half is reduction in cost of government by enactment of the economy bill.

More important than striving for a perfect tax bill is the enactment of some kind of tax bill without further delay. While congress has wrestling with tax and economy bills, degeneration and stagnation have worked evil, reducing the national wealth by billions of dollars, and have raised doubt of the integferred with the hope that they will stimulate attendance enough to make the continuance of the new price policy possible.

The Friday - Saturday picture initiating the new price policy is "The Gay Caballero," which for the first time pairs George O'Brien and Victor McLaglen.

On the program there is something new in comedies. Monkeys are the actors in "Jazzbo Singer." A Mickey Mouse Cartoon and a two reel comedy, "Taxi Troubles" round out the bill.

PICTURE STARS MISS HOPKINS: SUNDAY AND MONDAY.

Miriam Hopkins' blond allure will be one of the main attractions at the Oasis theatre Sunday and Monday.

her latest screen effort, "Dancers in the Dark." Miss Hopkins has scored in several recent photoplays, including "The Smiling Lieutenant," "Twenty-four Hours," "Two Kinds of Women" and "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde."

But Miss Hopkins' presence is not the only reason for the expected popularity of this picture. Jack Oakie also is in the cast, as are William Collier, Jr., and Eugene Pallette.

Oakie made a particular hit in "Touchdown," and Collier will be remembered for his outstanding work in "Street Scene." Pallette handles much of the comedy material in "Dancers in the Dark."

"Dancers in the Dark" is action-packed, filled with tense situations and dialogue that crackles with the tempo of modern American life.

This swift, entertaining story has a lot of good laughs, put over by those comedy experts, Oakie and Eugene Pallette.

Its background is a colorful dance hall, its hostess the heroine of the story. Dynamic drama is its principal ingredient, a series of exciting events leading to a high-voltage climax.

In addition to this feature and Fox Movietone News, which brings the latest in current events, the Oasis program includes another rickling Red Time story, "Cries Crossed," and a "Torchy" comedy, "Torchy Raises the Auntie."

SHERIDAN—Through the use of irrigated Ladino clover pasture, O. F. Daniels of this community was able to cut the feed cost per pound of butterfat to 16 cents a pound last year. During the summer when the cows were on the clover the cost was as low as 8 cents a pound. This was raised during the winter when the cows were fed in the barn.
