WHAT DO YOU EXPECT FROM YOUR NEWSPAPER?

Since the advertisers pay a large share of the expense of publishing your newspaper, don't you think you owe them the duty to patronize them whenever they offer you equal or better values than the non-advertiser?

And you, Mr. Advertiser, don't you think that in view of the many services which the newspaper performs, for which the newspaper derives no compensation, but which mean more business and more profits for you, the newspaper deserves your advertising business? Make your community newspaper your advertising medium and you help build up the community. Send your advertising dollar away from home and you do just what you wouldn't want others, to whom you look for your business, to do. It is just as important that the advertising dollar remain in the community as it is for the grocery dollar and the clothing dollar and the rest of the commodity dollars that make Springfield prosperous to remain at home.—Springfield Advance Press.
